WINNERS CHOSEN IN CONTEST 7 GO TO HEPPNER

Seven contestants were chosen Thursday night to represent this district in the county declamation contest at Heppner May first.

From the lower four grades were chosen Francis Bryson and Eugene Normoyle; from the upper four, Joel Engelman and Hazel Padburg. Nedra Agee, Frank Mason and Richard Lundell from the high school.

The contest was interesting and close all through. Mr. Brown's orchestra furnished music during the program.

Melvin, three year old son of Mrs. Brady of Jordan Siding, was attacked by a pet coyote Sunday while visiting at the Joe Gibson home. He was taken to Heppner and treated by Dr. Mc Murdo. Twelve stitches were required to close the wounds.

Rev. W. W. Head is in Cathlamet this week attending a church convention.

Mr. Ralph Harris is taking care of the Tum A Lum yard this week while Mr. Esselstyn is away.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rankin returned home last Wednesday from Sheridan Oregon, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Rankin's father.

Matt Halvorsen woke up last Monday morning to find his house red hot and he scarcely had time to get out with his life before it fell in. Not an article of furniture or clothing was saved and if some kind neighbor hadn't come forward we don't know how Mr. Halvorsen would have come to town to buy his new suit. The fire started from an over-heated stove.

Reverend Clark M. Smith was in Ione Tuesday in the interests of the Sunday School group gathering which will meet this year in the Minor grove, about the middle of June.
