Kodak keeps the story

Indoors, there's a long list of pictures to make for the Kodak history of the home. And the Kodak album soon becomes the most precious book you have.

Ask us for your copy of "At Home with the Kodak." This 32-page booklet, completely illustrated, describes and shows interesting pictures such as you can make at your house.

Kodak Film—the genuine in the famous yellow box.

Congress

No. 2

Statistics have proven that only one-half of one per cent of the speeches made in Congress are listened to. A great many Congressmen speak IN, but not TO, Congress. But every speech is published in the record. They send the records back home to show "What they told 'em up there in Washington." Now the people back home think Congress heard their "Lem" tell 'em this.

Now, here is my scheme to stop speech making. A Bill reading as follows: "Congressional Record must not only contain speech, but number of members, and names who listened to speech, and why." For instance: "Congressman Post Hole arose to a point of information and spoke at length on, 'Is Locarno a town, or is it a Treaty?' Length of speech, without waiting for applause, four hours, thirty-six minutes; attendance, Gout (Rep. N. Y.): 'Unable to get out.' Sixty-four (Dem. N. J.): 'Case of reciprocity, he listened to mine.' Lowbrow (Rep. Mass.): 'I was asleep, even the good speakers haven't woke me up.'

Now I claim that will stop some speech making. The minute it gets back home that "Lemmie" is talking to himself up there, "Lemmie" will stop talking.

You know why they won't listen to anybody up there? They have gone out to smoke, that's why, and you know why they've gone out to smoke? Why, "Bull" Durham, of course. IT'S BETTER THAN ANY SPEECH EVER MADE.

Sphinx in a New Role

The Boston Transcript credits this to a New Zealand paper: "Mr. George Cowland's timber is arriving, so his house will soon be rising sphinx-like from the ashes of the old one."

LEXINGTON ECHOES

Mrs. Louis Frederickson, former Lexington resident is substituting at the Luallen school near Ione. It is probable that she will complete the term at this school.

Miss Wilma Leach who had been sent from O. A. C. to Pullman as an athletic representative stopped at home for a short visit on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Slocum entertained last week their brother, Marcellas Morgan of Arlington also District manager C. M. Shinn of the Allan B. Kirk Co. Mr. Shinn is an old time friend of Mr. and Mrs. Slocum.

S. P. Blakely of Twisp Wash. is a visitor at the home of his brother, Warren Blakely.

Mr. and Mrs. Galey Johnson are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hendrix from Astoria.

Willow Branch C. E. Union convened at Heppner on Tuesday evening. Lexington sent a dozen young Endeavors, all of whom report on interesting and profitable session at Heppner.

And they were Harold Sherer, Cnas Wilcox and Elmer Palmer who taking advantage of fishing seasons first day proceeded to ward Heppner beyond which they expected to make a catch. Forks of Willow creek yielded small success but the boys, hoping for something big drove on toward old coal mine and Herrens mill. Misfortune over took them. Deep in the snow went the bug. Our fishermen were forced to exert most of their strength and all of their patience working their bug out.

Wearily they faced toward home. Harold Sherer had the ill luck to lose a bill fold containing both his fishing and drivers license. The boys expect to make a return trip when the season is further advanced.

Too Easy With 'Em

A Western banker, a little troubled with his English as most of his banking business is done in a German settlement, was attending a bankers' convention. He thought the bankers generally had been a little too lenient in making loans and said, "The trouble with us bankers is that we are too tam laxative."—Capper's Weekly.
