

Stanfield Fighting to Develop Resources of Oregon

U.S. Senator Robert N. Stanfield maintains that the natural resources of Oregon belong to the people of Oregon, and he is leading the fight to establish Oregon's right to use the revenues to develop the state and materially reduce taxes.

Crazing Bill Entering Wedge

Stanfield's Grazing Bill which has been unanimously recommended for passage by the Senate Committee on Public Lands. Stanfield's Chairman, is the first step toward restoring control to Oregon of the revenues from its resources. Secretary Work, Department of the Interior, pronounces the bill "a constructive measure which will result in definite and positive benefits to the livestock industry, and will permit the use of the public lands by both small and large live stock raisers."

U. S. Senator McNary wired Bert Anderson, republican county chairman of Jackson County, on May 4:

Senator Stanfield, chairman of the Senate Public Lands Committee, has conducted hearings and given much of his time to Oregon and California grazing lands tax bill. I AM ASSISTING HIM IN EVERY WAY I CAN. I am busy assisting in the hearings before the Senate Committee on the attempted sale of the Oriental line by shipping lines to the Dollar interests. SENATOR STANFIELD IS ASSISTING ME IN EVERY WAY HE CAN.

The passage of the grazing law on May 7, 1926, placing protective duties on 25 of the principal farm products, was due largely to the insistent efforts of Senator Stanfield.

On May 20, 1926 the Stanfield bill was introduced for financial relief of agricultural banks and cooperative through the War Finance Corporation. The main features of this measure became law as a part of the Norris bill August 14, 1926, and Oregon banks, trust and loan companies that $2,222,000,000 received $400,000 under its terms.

Senator Stanfield favors the continuation of the reclamation of Oregon's arid lands and every irrigation here is reduced to cultivation and production. He is working in full accord with his colleagues, Senator H. H. Burton of the Senate Committee on Irrigation and with Representative Stevens, chairman of the same committee in the House. He has introduced legislation. The Oregon Senators were on the floor of the Senate on the 20th and 21st of May. They should be provided by the Department and the Interior Department. In March 1926, nearly 60,000 acres of the reclamation fund for the purpose of making agricultural loans to settlers on certain selected projects over a period of five years.

STANFIELD'S HIGH RANK ON SENATE COMMITTEES HELPS OREGON. IT WOULD TAKE YEARS FOR A NEW MAN TO ATTAIN HIS RANK IN THE SENATE.

LEXINGTON ECHOES

Commencement exercise for Lexington High School senior class were held in School Auditorium on Thursday evening, May 13th. At eight o'clock the program was started with the invocation by Rev. W. W. Road of Lone. Edward Keller and ladies quartet followed with cornet solo and song. Raymond Miller presented the gift of his class to the High School and Freda McMillan represented her class in oration. Mrs. Millard F. Parker, Mrs. Jesse Turner, and Harvey Miller rendered musical selections.

Professor J. I. Matthews from Willamette University crowned the evening's program with his able and interesting address to the seniors. He wove his words in pleasing fashion about the well known Bible story of Jacob and his dream of a ladder. Professor Matthews urged his hearers to so build their Ladder of Dreams, as they go through life, it shall be as Jacob's ladder was, firmly fixed upon the earth, and yet, reaching far and safely into heaven.

H. E. Warner, representing the Board of Education, presented diplomas to the following:

- Freda McMillan
- Raymond Miller
- James Keller
- Eva Wilcox
- Lavelle Leathers
- Velle Ward

STEIWER IS THE Strong Candidate

More than 40 newspapers in Oregon have endorsed Fred Steiwer for the republican nomination for United States Senator. What would be a better indication of strength?

All the other candidates for the nomination have centered their fire upon Steiwer and contend that he is the man they must defeat. No one ever attacks a weak man. Democratic leaders are exerting their strength against Steiwer. They fear him. They know they cannot defeat him in the general election. A vote for Steiwer Friday is a vote for a republican victory in November.
