There came a voice without reply—
'Tis man's perdition to be safe
When for the truth he ought to die—

Notes of Interest to All
Local Denominations.

The regular meeting of the Willow Branch Christian Endeavor Union No. 17 met, as announced, at Lexington in the Congregational church Tuesday evening of this week.

Members of the Endeavor Societies of Heppner and Lexington and of Epworth League were in attendance. The pastors of the Christian, Methodist and Congregational churches were present.

At the business session it was voted to transmit the sum of $15 through the Secretary Union No. 17 to the State Treasurer for the support of the State Field Worker.

After routine matters of business were disposed of, those present enjoyed a social hour and at the close refreshments were served.

The date of the next meeting is July 14.

Rev. Paul De F. Mortimore, former pastor of the Ione Church of Christ, will be in Ione Sunday, June 6, when it is planned to hold an All-day meeting.

Mr. Mortimore is located at Gladstone, Oregon where he has been carrying on a very successful work as pastor the Christian Church.

The pulpit of the Ione Congregational church will be filled by the Rev. E. C. Alford of the Community Methodist Church of Heppner, the third Sunday in June, Pastor Head exchanging with Pastor Alford on that day.

Religion and morality, now and forever, one and inseparable.

What Paul meant by being all things to all men was being a Christian with everybody.

Faith and vision are inseparable

Synthetic Women

It is a world to see how commonly we are blinded with the collusions of women, and more enticed by their ornaments being artificial than their proportion being natural. I loathe almost to think on their ornaments and apothecary drugs, the sleeking of their faces and all their siltber sauces, which bring quinsiness to the stomach and disgust to the mind.—John Lyly.

PIANO MUST BE SOLD

Will sacrifice high-grade piano in storage near here for immediate sale. Will give easy terms to established home. For full particulars and where it may be seen, address Portland Music Co., 227 6th Street, Portland, Oregon.

BIBLE READING FOR THE WEEK

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway, for our God.

Every valley shall be exalted and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

The voice said, Cry, and he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field:

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth because the Spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand forever.

WESTWARD HO

BY JOAQUIN MILLER

What strength! what strife! what rude unrest!
What shocks! what half shaped armies met!
A mighty nation moving west,
With all its stately sinews set
Against the living forests. Hear
The shouts, the shouts of pioneers,
The roused forests, rolling wheels,
As if some half check'd army reels,
Recoils, redoubles, comes again,
Loud sounding like a hurricane.

O stalwart, bearded, westmost men,
So tower-like, so Gothic built!
A kingdom won without the guilt
Of studied battle that hath been
Your blood's inheritance. . . Your heirs
Cleave softly through the mellow loam
Where you have made eternal home,
And set no sign, Your epitaphs
Are writ in furrows. Beauty laughs
While through the green ways wandering
Beside her love, slow gathering
Waite, stary-hearted May-time blooms
Above your lowly leveled tombs;
And then below the spotted sky
She stops, she leans, she wonders why
The ground is heaved and broken so
And why the grasses darker grow
And droop and trail like wounded wing.

THE VOICE OF THE LIBERTY BELL

This is one of the two new official posters of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 to celebrate 150 years of American independence. The Exposition will continue to December 1. Dan Smith, the artist, has symbolized the epoch in history which the tolling of the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall, July 4, 1776, marked and has depicted the growth of the United States from the original thirteen states, represented by the thirteen stars which emerge from the mouth of the Liberty Bell.

Black Flower From Tibet

Species of rhododendrons which produce perfectly black flowers were recently discovered by an English botanist in Tibet.

Denotes Crown Property

The broad arrow stamp consists of a conventionalized arrowhead. It is placed on government stores in Great Britain to distinguish them as public or crown property. It was the cognizance of Henry, Viscount Sydney, earl of Romney, master in general of the ordnance, 1693-1702. The broad arrow has long been used in England on the outer clothing worn by convicts.

Pugilist's Vanity

An oddity of Tom Sayers, the celebrated English heavyweight pugilist, was to have his name picked out in little brass studs on the toe-cap of his boots, so that all might be able to recognize him.

Guide to Destiny

That character and destiny can be read by watching people dance is the novel declaration of a society clairvoyant. Women especially, she thinks, give themselves away, as it were, when they dance.
