

AMERICAN YOUTH CANDIDATE

Miss Helen F. Dodge of Pennsylvania, holder of a Carnegie medal for heroism, has been nominated as a candidate for the American Youth Award established by the directors of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, which is to be held in Philadelphia from June 1 to December 1 in celebration of 150 years of American Independence. Miss Dodge is the daughter of George H. Dodge of 5944 Walton avenue, Philadelphia. She jumped into the Toms River at Ocean Gate, N. J., fully dressed, and, while having use of only one arm, saved the life of a drowning girl.

DESTINATIONS

"The officer is all wrong. Your Honor. I wasn't doing anything like sixty miles an hour."
"Were you watching the speedometer?"
"No, sir. I didn't need to. I wasn't in any hurry—I was just out for a spin. I wasn't going anywhere."
"Well, you're going somewhere now. Ten days."—Huntingdon Motorist.

Maddening

Wetwash—What drove the light-house keeper's wife crazy? Loneliness?
Roughdry—Not exactly. She was listening in at the radio while a big dry goods store ashore was describing a bargain sale for the next day.—Legion Weekly.

Gone

Brown—You seem angry about something.
Smith—Yes, this darned cigar went out.
Brown—Why, that's nothing. My daughter's young man called last night and a whole box of my cigars went out.

A Race Against Time

Mother—Why do you eat those ginger cookies so greedily? You have plenty of them.
Tommy—I know it. That's why I'm afraid my appetite will be gone before the cookies are.

Speed

Bill—Is Billings as fast as all that?
Hank—Should say so. He's so fast he can drink water out of a strainer.—Good Hardware.

Origin of Word "Boss"

The word "boss" is said to have come from the early Dutch settlers in New York, in whose language the word "baas"—the "h" being pronounced like "a" in all—meant an overseer or an inspector.

Pittsburgh Glass Center

More than half of the window glass, one-third of the plate glass and one-eighth of the bottles used in the United States are made at Pittsburgh.

In the "Good Old Days"

In the days of female prize fights, an English woman was reported to have floored her Jewish opponent 70 times, and after an hour and twenty minutes of fighting was declared the conqueror.

HE GOT HIS

Timid Voyager—Steward, doesn't this ship tip a good deal?
Steward—No, sir, not that I've noticed, sir—she leaves that to the passengers, sir.

Pome by All of Us

Although I am very modest, yet I sometimes fear I am the only one in all the world who is not "queer."

Revenge

"Anything else, sir?" asked the barber of the customer who had been in a great rush.
"No. Wait a minute. Is that my wife waiting over there to have her bob trimmed?"
"Yes, sir."
"Give me all you got."—American Legion Weekly.

Unfortunate

The Prodigy's Mother—Of course—I know she makes little mistakes sometimes—but you see, she plays entirely by ear.
The Prodigy's Uncle—Unfortunately—that's the way I listen.

Hateful

Pat—Oh wouldn't throw ye a rope if ye was drownin'.
Mike—Oh wouldn't touch it if ye did.—Winton Advance.

Probably Not

Dad—Take things slower, my boy. Patience never cost anything.
Dad's Son—Did you ever ride behind a slow taxi driver?

SHAKES IT OUT OF HIM

"How on earth do you manage to get Cholly to spend money on you?"
"Oh, I take him out in my little car and he loosens up."

The Modern Mother

What shall I do with such a child? She fills me with dismay.
"Today she tried to make mud pies. Out of my beauty clay."

Out of Character

Hank—That death scene was a riot.
Ezz—How's that?
Hank—The corpse got the hiccups.—Wabash Caveman.

Good Idea, Though

Salesman—If rightly used, this washing machine will pay for itself.
Supt.—Yes, I know, but my wife might object to taking in washings.

Seat of the Pain

Little Natalie complained that she found it painful to swallow and her mother was worried about it. "Are you sure your throat pains you?" she asked. "Tell mother just where the pain is."
"My tongue hurts where it was put in," replied Natalie.

Courtesies

"What do you understand by the term 'senatorial courtesy'?"
"It is not clearly defined," answered Senator Sorghum. "But in a certain respect it implies the assumed privilege of being impolite to a newcomer."

Nearing the End

The honeymoon is in peril when he forgets to say "Hello! Dearie!" to her fourth telephone call of the day.—Milwaukee Journal.

CHAIN STORE PROFITS

The chainstores boast of their "overages being 4 per cent."
Overages can be nothing but short weight, short count and inferior goods. In other words, these rascal chainstore magnates compel their employees to steal their salaries from the people. It costs the chains nothing for help. What is more, they even profit by the theft.
Duncan's Trade Register.

Kodak does double duty on the farm

Today it's Buddy, ready for spring gardening; tomorrow it's a visit from Cousin Frank—there are always pictures that are fun to make and keep.

Pictures of the business of farming, are plentiful, too—snapshots of cattle, sheep, horses, hogs that you'll use.

Let us show you how simple it is to get good pictures with a Kodak.

The fun side and the practical side of picture-making on the farm are described in an interesting way in the booklet, "Kodak on the Farm." A copy is yours for the asking.
