Great men are they who see that spiritual is stronger than any material force and that thoughts rule the world.
EMERSON

SENATOR BORAH ON NULLIFICATION

Misery, poverty and remorse mark the maledict course of liquor from the time it issues from the time it issues from the coil and copper colored worm in the distillery until it empties into the hell of crime, dishonor and death. The man in the automobile may be opposed to the 18th amendment but he will instantly discharge a drinking chauffeur. The train may be crowded at the anti prohibition meeting, but they would mop the engineer who would take a drink while drawing his precious freight.

Church News

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

Next Sunday, June 13, the annual rally of Sunday Schools in the territory having its axis on Willow Creek will be held in the grove at the Ellis Minor farm. The program s being arranged by the Rev. Clark M. Smith of the American Sunday School Union. All schools have been invited and a large attendance is anticipated. The Ione Congregational school will attend in a body; assembling at the church at the usual Sunday school hour and thence proceeding to the grove.

Rev. Paul Mortimore and wife were in Ione last Sunday. Mr. Mortimore preached to the congregation at the hours of morning and evening worship. Early Monday morning they returned to their home at Cadstone.

The special services that have been in progress for some time past came to a close Monday evening of this week. The ladies have gone to Toppenish, Washington for where they will hold services for a week before going on to conference. Harold Ahalt led the singing and preached the sermon Monday evening. Tuesday morning he departed for Toppenish.

A Daily Vacation Bible School is being held at Morgan this week by Clark M. Smith of the American S. L. Union. The two classes are being taught by Miss Dorothy Christiani of Prineville and Miss May Canfield of Portland.

At the Annual Group Gathering held at Morgan next Sunday, the morning hour be a Sunday School taught by selected teachers.

Following dinner a program by the various schools and the Daily Vacation Bible School will be put on. Short addresses will be given and the afternoon concluded with a sermon by Rev. A. Neufeld of Arlington. Miss May Canfield will sing at the afternoon service. Bring your dinner and come along and we believe the Lord will give you a blessing.

BIBLE READING FOR THE WEEK

- 1 DOTH not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?
- 2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths;
- 3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors,
- 4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.
- 5 O ye simple, understand wisdom, and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.
- 6 Hear; for I will speak excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.
- 7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
- 8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.
- 9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and sight to them that find knowledge.
- 10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

Proverbs 8.

What mortals think they know of God
A thousand times rehearse;
What mortals do not know of God
Fills all the universe.

ANTHONY TO CLEOPATRA

I am dying, Egypt, dying!
Ebb the crimson life tide fast,
And the dark plutonian shadows
Gather on the evening blast;
Let thine arm, O Queen, enfold me
Hush thy sobs and bend thine ear
Listen to the great heart secrets
Thou, and thou alone must hear,
Though my scarred and veteran legions
Bear their eagles high no more
And my wrecked and scattered galleys
Straw dark Aetium's fatal shore;
Though no glittering guards
surround me,
Prompt to do their master's will,
I must perish like a Roman,
Die the great triumver still.
Let not Caesar's servile minions
Mock the lion thus laid low;
'Twas no foeman's that felled him,
'Twas his own that struck the blow:
His, who pillowed on thy bosom,
Turned aside from glory's ray -
His too drunk with thy caresses
Madly threw a world away.
I am dying, Egypt, dying!
Hark! the insulting foeman's cry;
They are coming - quick my falchion!
Let ne fronthem ere I die.
Ah, no more amid the battle
Shall my heart exulting swell;
Isis and osiris guard thee -
Cleopatra - Rome - farewell!

WILLIAM HAINES LYTLE

A "Correct" Likeness of Washington

This heroic statue of the commander-in-chief of the first armies of the United States was made for the city of Portland, Oregon, though not yet delivered there by the artist. The western municipality has loaned it to the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 and continuing until December 1, to celebrate 150 years of American independence. At the foot of the sculpture is shown Pompeo Coppini, the sculptor. Dr. Henry Waldo Poe, of Portland, declares the face to be the most correct likeness of Washington ever modeled.
