PIONEER MOTHER GOES HOME

Anna Louisa Lundell Ends Life's Mortal Term.

Anna Louisa Lundell was born in Sweden, June 11, 1842. She was married to Frank A. Lundell November 9, 1870 and came to California in 1882. The family removed to Gooseberry in 1887. She there united with the Swedish Lutheran Church in which she became an ardent and faithful worker both in church and in Sunday School.

Since 1918, she has lived in Ione where she passed away, June 22, 1926, at the age of 84 years and 11 days.

She was the mother of ten children of whom six survive—August W., Ernest R., Anna Lindstrom, Mary Swanson, Oscar L., and Algott W.

Funeral services were held by Rev. C. G. Bloomquist, of Portland, at the Congregational church in Ione and also at the Swedish Lutheran church at Gooseberry where she was laid to rest.

GAY GATHERING AT BUTTERBY FLATS

Wedded Bliss Crowned With Joy On 25th Anniversary

Last Sunday at the Jack Hynd ranch on Butterby Flats near Cecil about seventy-five relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd met in honor of the twenty fifth anniversary of their marriage.

About 1:00 the melodious voices were heard singing Here Comes the Bride and upon investigation we saw the happy couple marching out upon the lawn led by Buck Lieuallan, the speed cop, who acted as preacher on this occasion.

After the couple had been married in proper style, the preacher and the husband had a race to see who would kiss the bride first but the husband won out. About half past one the crowd was led under the trees to a row of tables that were loaded with everything one could wish for in the shape of good eats which was followed by a very liberal portion of ice cream. The preacher and a fellow who do not live very far from the river and whose first name is George took high honors for disposing of a big portion of these good eats.

After dinner the guests sat around under the trees and talked over old times, all wondering when and where the next good time would be had in the Cecil community. Here's hoping it will be soon.

BULLARD'S PHARMACY

An outstanding feature of the week in Ione was the meeting of the Gilliam and Morrow County Pomona Grange on Saturday, the 19th. This was the first meeting of the Pomona and five granges were represented.

The grange was called to order at 11:00 P. M. by Master Chas. Wicklander. After routine business matters were disposed of the meeting adjourned for lunch.

Reopening after lunch a literary program was given at Legion Hall important business matters were considered at a session held in Odd Fellows' hall. Resolutions were voted favoring the movement of Hood River Pomona to establish a bank.

The fifth degree was conferred on 22 members. The next Pomona meeting will be held at Boardman
