I am in earnest. I will not equivocate; I will not excuse; I will not retreat an inch; and I will be heard.
William Lloyd Garrison.

THE COST OF CRIME

Crime, in goods stolen and in the forces required to combat it, costs the American people $10,000,000,000 a year. If the people of the State of Oregon once realize what crime costs them, it would not be long until they would have courts and legislatures do what the British have and cut the hump and feathers out of court practice and procedure.
Oregon Journal.

Nevertheless recent attempts to arrest law violators have resulted, unfortunately, in the killing of human beings, which is always to be deplored. —Gov. Pierce

TAMPA ROBINS

The robin laughed in the orange tree:
"Ho windy North, a fig for thee;
While breasts are red and wings are bold
And green trees wave us globes of gold,
Time's scythe shall reap but bliss for me
— Sunlight, song, and the orange tree.

Burn, golden globes in leafy sky,
My orange planets: crimson I
Will shine and shoot among the spheres
(Blithe meteor that no mortal fears)
And thrid the heavenly orange tree
With orbits bright of minstrelsy.

If that I hate wild winter's spite—
The gibbet trees, the world in white,
The sky but gray wind o'er a grave—
Why should I ache, the season's slave?
Ill sing from the top of the orange tree,
Glam'ry, winter's tyranny.

I'll south wit the sun, and keep my clime;
My wing is king of the summer time;
My breast to the sun his torch shall hold;
And I call down through the green and gold,
Time, take thy scythe, reap bliss for me,
Bestir thee under the orange tree.

The guns that spoke at Lexington
Knew not that God was planning then
The trumpet word of Jefferson
To bugle forth the rights of men.

The Dedication

Seven score and ten years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation; conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created free. It is for us to be dedicated to the unfinished task which they have thus far nobly advanced. A. Lincoln

New York's Old Guard Coming to Sequi

The Declaration

We hold these truths to be self-evident: that men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Thos. Jefferson

BIBLE READING FOR THE WEEK

1 I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand

6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; he shall preserve thy soul.

8 The Lord shall preservethy going out and thy coming in, from this time forth and even for evermore.

Psalm 121

They that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which can not be removed but abideth forever.

As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so is the Lord round about his people from hence forth and even forever.

At an imposing ceremony before their headquarters in New York City the famous Old Guard of New York under the command of Major E. Havemeyer Snyder, commandant of the organization, received the invitation from the officials of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 and continuing to December 1, to celebrate 150 years of American Independence, to attend the Flag Day exercises on June 14, when all the historic military commands of the thirteen original colonies will assemble for a big military display and parade headed by General Pershing Captain James A. B. Franciscus, of the Old Guard State Fencibles, of the Sesqui city, is presenting the invitation to Major Snyder. At Major Snyder's left stand the commanding officers of the Philadelphia organizations, while the members of the two famous commands are grouped about their leaders in their striking dress uniforms.
