IONE, OREGON, FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1926

NUMBER 8

FIREWATER, FINE FIFTY Moonshine Meter

Meets our Marshal.

L. D. Rasmussen was arrested last Saturday night on the charge of possessing intoxicating liquor. On being brought before Judge Robinson, he pleaded guilty and was fined fifty dollars.

Chief of Police, George Franks made the arrest. After considerable rustling which included a trip to Heppner, the fine was raised and paid and Mr. Rasmussen went on his way.

They Do Say

That Oregon's state and local roads and bridges represent an outlay on construction account of $200,000,000.

That an arrest can be made in Ione for the violation of the prohibition law.

That Horse Shoe Bill threw seven ringers straight at a little game on the Barnyard Golf Links last week.

That we have some young men who are too smart to be caught.

That while the Secretary of the Treasury may be a Mellon, he is certainly no watermelon.

That the University "atmosphere" is not intellectually vitalizing; that scholarship, the essence of education, is not the coveted goal of the mass of the students.

That what we need is not less democracy but more; not less faith in constitutional government, but more.

That the difference between a bootleg peddler and a bootleg consumer is not visible to the naked eye.

BE CAREFUL WITH FIRE

There is this about fire, when it is loose you cannot whistle it back again. Unless it is stayed by enormous toil of men, or halted by natural obstacle, or drenched by rain, it will burn till it no longer finds materials for consumption.

Look at the ghosts of trees that rise from old scars on our mountains where forest fires have been. Nature will repair, but slowly. Men who were careless with fire put to naught her toil of a century.

Be careful with fire and then be more careful than ever. All this greenery, this coolness, this delightful beauty, may be blackeuen and made hideous by a single careless act.

The homes and industries of tomorrow may never be if so much as a spark falls in this mid summer tinder. Be careful with fire. You cannot whistle it back.

STATE POLICE FAVORED BY AMERICAN LEGION

Medford Post No. 15, American Legion, Department of Oregon, will introduce resolution on the floor of the American Legion Convention at Coos Bay, instituting a movement to inaugurate legislation a State Police Force similar to that now in effect in twenty-four of the leading states of the Union; believing that in the establishment of this method of policing the state, greater efficiency and more economy will be the result in comparison with the present system of overlapping of authority and duplication of offices and law enforcement.

FROM FAR OFF MICHIGAN

Mr and Mrs. Heliker Entertain Guests from Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hayne of Grand Rapids Michigan were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heliker last week; leaving on Monday morning for Portland whence they will go to Olympia, Washington, for a short visit. After leaving Olympia, Mr. and Mrs. Haynes will go south to San Diego, California, where they expect to locate permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Heliker visited with these people while in Grand Rapids, three years ago.

One of Largest Geysers

Excelsior geyser, in the Yellowstone National park, Wyoming, is said to be one of the largest geysers in the world. It has thrown a column of water to a height of from 200 to 300 feet.

Fruit-Fed Puppies

Fruit-fed puppies are the latest, a British veterinarian having proved, to his own satisfaction at least, that puppies brought up on a diet which includes oranges, apples and bananas make better and bigger dogs than those that have known only the usual dog foods.
