Oh, for a book and a shady nook
Either indoors or out
With the song of the wild bird
Overhead
Oathstreet cries around about.

TRAIL TO RAIL

EUGENE, OREGON.

Eugene, Oregon
July 29. —

Trains carrying delegations from Portland, Klamath Falls, Sacramento and San Francisco business and industrial organizations to the 'Trail to Rail' celebration will be the first to operate over the Southern Pacific's new 280 mile Cascade Route, was announced here in a special wire received by the Trail to Rail Association from J. H. Dyer, general manager at San Francisco. The event will unite eastern and western Oregon, long separated by the Cascades barrier.

Though the regular local train service over the new line will not begin until about September 4, the railroad has arranged to run the first trains as specials to arrive here for the Trail to Rail celebration, August 19 - 20. Following the two day program and pageant they will travel over the new route to Klamath Falls. It is expected that more than two thousand people will make the first trip which will carry them over the Cascades to the South Oregon metropolis.

LOCAL NEWS

George Evans of Blackhorse came near breaking his arm last Friday. While cranking the combine, the crank broke and threw his arm against the belt and engine. An X Ray picture taken by Dr. Johnston showed no bones were broken but, just the same, the arm was pretty sore.

Josie Rowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Rowell of Rhea Creek was severely poisoned by a bee sting on the hand Sunday afternoon. Within thirty minutes the young lady was swollen from head to foot and was hardly recognizable. Dr. Johnston was called from Heppner and reports that the girl was very ill for a day or two but will recover.

Mr. Alfred Balsiger, Miss Elv Balsiger and Mr. Wendel Balsiger and Miss Helen Balsiger, motored to Hood River for the week end returning Monday.

Joe Mason is in Ione this week visiting relatives and enjoying his vacation.

Cole Smith is in the market for wheat every day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Basiger and daughter Lucie, of Vancouver, Washington, are visiting with relatives in Ione this week. They arrived Sunday evening coming by auto.

Gravel spreading is still the order of the day in Ione though we understand this week is likely to see the end of it. The total extent of graveled streets approximates two miles.

Pat Nolan, son of Walter Nolan of Rhea Creek was operated on last Thursday at the Morrow General Hospital, for appendicitis. Dr. Johnson reports the young man as getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Schriver of Kings Valley were in Ione Sunday and attended services at the Congregational church. We were sorry to learn that the immediate occasion of their coming was the funeral of their grandchild, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schriver, who died of complications following whooping cough and was buried Saturday at Heppner.

Mrs. Jack Farris of Ione underwent a major operation, Wednesday, at the Morrow General Hospital. Dr. Johnston reports her condition good.

Good Work and Reasonable Prices

What's the Price?

This is the question that enters the mind of every customer who examines merchandise with the expectation of buying something

Realizing that most people make this the first consideration when they go to buy, we have priced our goods consistently low, —but never at the sacrifice of quality.

If you find any article bought at this store not as represented, bring it back and we will make good our claims.
