When tillage begins, other arts follow. The farmers therefore are the founders of civilization.

—Daniel Webster.

WHO BUILT THE RAILROADS?

It is true that following the the great Civil War, railroads were needed to unite the Atlantic and the Pacific, but it was a crime unprecedented to give away such vast empires of land as were granted to the various western railroads for the construction of the roads and then have the federal government protect, as they are doing today, through laws court decisions, the little group of multimillionaires who have acquired by means fair and foul, these great lines of transportation.

Gov. Walter M. Pierce.

At the Christian Endeavor Conference to be held at Turner, Aug. 30 to Sept. 6, there will be, each evening an inspirational address and an out door bonfire meeting, the latter being led by Mr. Brown and said to be the best feature of the conference by many delegates each year.

Reports of the recent World's Christian Endeavor Convention in London will be given by Mr. Brown and Miss Elaine Cooper of Portland, both of whom are expected to return by that time.

Turner is on the main line of the Southern Pacific, ten miles south of Salem. Christian Endeavorers and leaders and friends are expected from many parts of the state. Registrations are being received at 303. Abington Bldg., Portland, and information is being sent out from there to all who are interested.

The Sunday school at Morgan has closed till September.

BIBLE READING FOR THE WEEK

1. He was a little city and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

15. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength; nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17. The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

7. Truly the light is sweet and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8. But if a man live many years and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes; but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

GREAT SESQUI STADIUM OPENED AT PHILADELPHIA

The giant arena in the centre of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition site in Philadelphia was built in approximately 300 working days. It was completed and in use a month before the opening of the big exposition which celebrates the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. This photograph, made from the air, shows nearly 3,000 boys on the playing field, massed there for the dedicatory exercises on May 1 which formally opened the structure. In the stands are seated 10,000 persons watching the program. A group of 10,000 persons is a large crowd but they are only a "drop in the bucket" in the big Philadelphia stadium. The boys paraded onto the field to the accompaniment of fourteen bands and there went through their drills and athletic exercises for the benefit of city officials and parents.
