Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

Invitations are out for an executive meeting of the presidents of all Christian Endeavor Societies included in Christian Endeavor Union No. 117.

The meeting will be held at Pendleton, August 14th and 15th and will be a combined executive session and house party. The sessions will begin with a fellow ship supper at 6:30 Saturday evening, and end with a devotional service beginning at 5:30 Sunday evening.

Notice is also given of the annual convention which meets in Freewater Federated church, Nov. 5, 6 and 7. Among the speakers who will address the convention are Judge Kanzler of Portland and Dallas Rice, State Y. P. S. C. E. Field secretary.

Don't forget the Summer Conference at Turner, August 30 to September 6. Sessions of the state executive committee will be held during the latter part of the week and will be presided over by Judge J. Kanzler of Portland, state C. E. president.

Communications in regard to the Pendleton meeting should be addressed to Mrs. Effie Ritchie, Freewater, R. F. D. No. 2 and with reference to the Turner meeting to Endeavor Headquarters, 303 Abington Building, Portland.

BIBLE READING FOR THE WEEK

THE preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of tongue, is from the Lord.

2. All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the Lord weigheth the spirits.

3. Commit thy works unto the Lord and thy thoughts shall be established.

4. The Lord hath made all things for himself; yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5. Every one that is proud of heart is an abomination to the Lord; though hand join in hand he shall not be unpunished.

6. By mercy and truth iniquity shall be purged; and by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil.

7. When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8. Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues without right.

9. A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.

10. A divine sentence is in the mouth of the king: his lips transgress not in judgement.

OPPORTUNITY

BY WALTER MALONE

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door,
And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win.

Wail not for precious chances passed away,
Weep not for golden ages on the wane!
Each night I burn the records of the day:
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped,
To vanished joys be blind and deaf and dumb;
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never bind a moment yet to come.

Thou deep in mire wring not your hands and weep,
I lend my arm to all who say "I can"
No shamefaced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise again and be a man!

Dost thou behold thy lost youth all aghast?
Dost reel from righteous retribution's blow?
Then turn from blotted archives of the past
And find the future's pages white as snow.

Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from thy spell;
Art thou a sinner? Sin may be forgiven;
Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to heaven.

The hypocrite is a saint and the traitor a man of honor till opportunity, that faithful touchstone, proves their metal base.

Sir Walter Scott

Selection of Dairy Cattle Breeds Influenced by Shows

A good typical Ayrshire sire

Putting on the finishing touches

Many a man who is undecided as to the breed of dairy cattle that he will select has been influenced in making his decision by the animals of a particular breed that he has seen in public.

The individual breeder secures a great deal of advertising as the result of exhibiting at fairs, or in offering good animals at public sales. It gives people a chance to see and know the kind of stock that a man is breeding and paves the way for future business.

It is essential that special care and attention be given dairy animals far in advance of the time that they are to be exhibited or sold. Exhibiting or selling animals publicly in their every day clothes is poor advertising and puts them at a disadvantage when the competition is keen. It takes several weeks to put a dairy animal in good show condition and what applies to fitting for show applies as well to fitting for sale.

It is important that the dairy animal to be exhibited or sold be in good flesh. A good covering of flesh adds to size, increases smoothness and indicates that the animal is thrifty and in good health. Dairy animals being fitted need extra feed.

Stabling and blanketing are great aids in putting the hair and hide in condition. By stabling in summer, the animal is protected from the hot sun which makes the hide harsh and stiff to the touch. A roomy box stall that is kept clean and well bedded provides desirable quarters. Continuous blanketing helps keep the animal clean, sweats the hide, thus improving its handling qualities and makes the hair lay to the body. The blanket need not be expensive but it must be tied on securely.

Every dairy animal that is to be exhibited should have the hair clipped from the entire body about three weeks previous to the date of the show or sale. This will get rid of the old hair and allow a new, even growth to develop which will greatly improve the appearance and increase the selling value of the animal.

A point often overlooked in the preparation of a dairy animal for show or sale is that of training to lead and stand properly. An untrained animal cannot display its good points to advantage if it combats the efforts of the attendant to exhibit it properly. A little time spent each day in training to handle properly will save effort and embarrassment at the show or sale and increase the financial return.

While in the show or sale ring, the man in charge of an animal should have one main thought in mind, namely that of showing the animal to advantage. By this is meant that when it stands, its feet are properly placed, back straight and head alert. Any movement on the part of the attendant or animal should be as graceful as possible. Until the ribbons are placed or the auctioneer's hammer falls, take no chances.
