"Kicking" Habit Strong

The tendency to kick on the part of a few suggests the chronic kicker and not the philosopher. This chronic kicking can be better illustrated by a little story. A man was led to the electric chair. Before he was sent he was asked: "Is there anything you would like to say before the death sentence is carried out?" "Yes, there is," he answered with that surlyness that comes from chronic kicking. "The man I killed for biting him ought to be shot. My lawyer was a crook and it took three appeals and two reprieves to break me. When I came here I thought I would get decent treatment, but you gave me a bed with bum springs, and the food has been fierce." "and," pointing to the electric chair, "I bet that d—n thing don't work."

Notes of Interest to All
Local Denominations.

At the Willow Branch Christian Endeavor meeting at Heppner, Tuesday evening, there were present from Ione, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith, Gladys Lundell, Hazel Akers, Mildred Smith and Thelma Forbes, and from Lexington, James Keller, Erma Duvall, Elmer Palmer, Lawrence Beach and Laurel Beach.

The devotional service was led by Roland Humphries.

At the business meeting Miss Helen Fredrickson, of Heppner, was elected president; Miss Hazel Akers, of Ione, vice president; Elmer Palmer, of Lexington, secretary; and Edward Keller, of Lexington, treasurer.

An enjoyable period devoted to games and refreshments followed the business session.

Dr. Francis E. Clark, founder and for decades the moving force in Christian Endeavor, writes enthusiastically of the seventh world convention held recently in London. He says it was a great success from every point of view, numerical, material and spiritual.

Over a thousand delegates attended from America and more than thirty-five countries were represented. Every land reported increased numbers and efficiency.

Bible Thoughts for the Week

Sunday.
Our Whole Duty.—Take diligent heed . . . to love the Lord your God, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and to cleave unto Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.—Josh. 22:5.

Monday.
Repentance.—And they cried, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord; but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve Thee.—1 Sam. 12:10.

Tuesday.
The Saints Are Safe.—The Lord will keep the feet of His saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.—1 Sam. 2:9.

Wednesday.
Answered Prayer.—For this child I prayed; and the Lord hath given me my petition, which I asked of Him.—1 Sam. 1:27.

Thursday.
Furnish No Fuel.—Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out; so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.—Prov. 20:20.

Friday.
Strength for the Days.—Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be.—Deut. 33:25.

Saturday.
The Contrast.—For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being Judges.—Deut. 32:13.

TODAY'S GREAT DREAM

BY ALFRED NOYES

Say that we dream! Our dreams have woven Truths that outface the burning sun;
The lightnings that we dreamed have cloven Time, space and linked all lands in one!
Dreams! But their swift, celestial fingers Have knit the world with threads of steel,
Till no remotest island lingers Outside the worlds great common weal.
Dreams are they? But ye cannot stay them,
Nor thrust the dawn back for one hour!
Truth, Love and Justice, if ye slay them,
Return with more than earthly power;
Strive, if ye will, to seal the fountains
That send the spring thro' leaf and spray;
Drive back the sun from the eastern mountains
Then—bid this mightier movement stay.

It is the dawn! The dawn! The nations
From east to west have heard the cry—
Through all earth's blood-red generations
By hate and slaughter climbed thus high.
Here—on this height—still to aspire,
One only path remains untried,
One path of love and peace climbs higher:
Make straight that highway for our God!

COOKINGHAM'S HIGH DIVING HORSE

"Pinto," the high diving horse, will evidently not be on exhibition here certainly rode that nag in a very successful chase Sunday evening. It has been reported in some circles that the boot leggers hereabouts make "monkeys out of the sheriff and the prosecuting attorney's office. Maybe they do at times but in the light of Sunday's experience perhaps such reports should not be given too much credit.

East Oregonian.

The only monkeys of bootleg manufacture are the boot leggers' customers. They are a numerous but vanishing race.

The number of foreigners leaving the United States now nearly equals the number coming in. A considerable number of those leaving the U. S. for the land of their birth are going by request,

ON THE SESQUI LAGOONS

Here are Americans, visitors to the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia which celebrates the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, riding about the lagoons in an Italian craft, a gondola, from which they view the buildings and displays from many lands. In the distance can be seen the mammoth Sesqui Stadium; to the right is the signal tower of the United States Coast Guard building and exhibit, and to the left is one of the Japanese pagodas which dot the exposition grounds. The Grecian pavilion is one of the permanent structures on the site before the city government decided to build the Sesqui at the front door of the great Philadelphia Navy Yard. The Exposition continues until December 1.
