Call things by their right names...
Glass of brandy and water! That is the current but not appropriate term; ask for liquid fire and distilled damnation.

-Robert Hall.

Why He Married Her

He said he married her because he loved her.
She said he married her because she really understood him.
His friend the biologist said he married her because he was tall and she was short, and he was blond and she was dark.
His friend the psychoanalyst said he married her because she resembled his mother.
The girl who had wanted him for herself said he married her because love is blind.
The man who wanted her for himself said he married her because he wanted her money.
But the real reason he married her was that she had squeezed his hand while they were sitting out a dance the night he proposed.—Exchange.

"And do you ever lose yourself in your work?"
"Yes."
"What is your work?"
"Exploring Central Africa."

SUITING OURSELVES

By Margaret E. Sangster.

When morning drifts across the sky,
This waking is our earnest cry—
"Oh, let me find a sense of power,
"Let me do great things every hour;
"Let me have courage to achieve,
"Let me find faith, God, to believe!"
When noon-time tells its flaming story,
We pause, in searching paths to glory,
And wonder, in our aching minds,
Wherethis road leads—wherethatone winds
But still we cry, with lifted chin,
"God, let me do my task—and win!"
When evening comes, with silent tread,
We wait, with drooping, tired head—
And softly, through the twilight air,
Our hearts unite in this small prayer...
"Oh God, your world is very wide,
"But please believe us—that we tried!"

Hope springs eternal in the human breast
Man never is but always to be blest.

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

The willow Branch Columbia Christian Endeavor Union No. 17 met Tuesday, October 7, at Lexington, in the Congregational church. Strong delegations were present from Lexington, Heppner and Iode; the total number in attendance being fiftyseven.

The devotional service was led by Edward Keller, Jr., of Lexington.

Following the devotional service, Miss Hazel Akers opened the business session. The resignation of the President, being in hand, was presented and accepted. Nominations for president being called for, Miss Ethel Moore was nominated and unanimously elected. Taking the chair Miss Moore briefly thanked the Endeavorers for the honor conferred upon her and then proceeded with the disposal of new business, which had chiefly to do with the planning of attendance on the District convention at Freewater in November. A committee representative of the local societies urged registration and attendance.

She then called Mr. Dallas Rice, Field Secretary for the state C. E. work, to come forward and assume the further direction of the meeting which he did, presenting the program plans for coming convention at Freewater and advocating the adoption of a budget system for the finances of the Union.

There were twelve Endeavorers present from Heppner and thirteen from Ione. The thirteen Ionians were Mrs. Frank Engelman, Ruth Swanson, Gene Engelman, Fern Engelman, Norma Swanson, Hazel Akers, Thelma Forbes, Ina Morgan, Leono Ritchie, Thelma Morgan, George Ritchie, Edison Morgan and W. W. Head.

When the regular session was ended a period was devoted to games and conversation and at the close light refreshments were served.

DR. JOHN E. REESE

Dr. John E. Reese, who attained fame by treating the muscular ailments of ball players, and who is known to millions as "Bonesetter" Reese, is the first man in America to receive the high degree of "Druid" in the ancient Welsh order of "Gorsedd." The ceremony took place at Wick park, Youngstown, Ohio.

Bible Thoughts for the Week

Sunday.
A Great Revelation.—For the Lord your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, . . . that all the people of the earth might know the hand of the Lord, that it is mighty.—Josh. 4:23, 24.

Monday.
The Majesty of God.—For the Lord your God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward.—Deut. 10:17.

Tuesday.
Enlargement in the Lord.—My heart rejoiceth in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in the Lord, my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies, because I rejoice in thy salvation.—1 Sam. 2:1.

Wednesday.
The Holy One.—There is none holy as the Lord: for there is none besides Thee; neither is there any rock like our God.—1 Sam. 2:2.

Thursday.
Sin Put Away.—. . . I have sinned against the Lord . . . The Lord hath put away thy sin: thou shalt not die.—11 Sam. 12:13.

Friday.
A Safe Fortress.—As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about His people from henceforth even forever.—Ps. 125:2.

Saturday.
God is True.—The Lord will not forsake His people for His Great Name's sake.—1 Sam. 12:22.

Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my pathway.

Think of That

"Wow! Of all the trouble," exclaimed an exasperated clerk at a cigar stand in a downtown office building. "A full-grown man just came up to use the pay telephone. When he came out of the booth he wanted me to refund his nickel. He said he called the number of some folks who had lived at a certain address a year ago and found they had moved away. He said the party that answered the telephone told him so. And he demanded his money back. He was mad because I wouldn't give it to him. Highway robbery, he said. Can you imagine that!"—Detroit News.

Dry Law Violators May Hunger.

Lincoln, Neb.—Superintendent F. A. High of the Nebraska Anti-Saloon league, has called upon county judges to invoke the bread and water sentence for persistent violators of the liquor laws. High said he planned to send a letter to judges calling their attention to the decision of the Nebraska supreme court upholding such a sentence imposed by Judge Chat of Tekamah.

Clerk—Well, ma'am, you can have one, ma'am, but not at any price. It'll cost you 25 cents.—Good Hardware.

Where Champions Are Made

"SARA ANN DUPLICATE"

Grand Champion Holstein Cow at Pacific International Livestock Exposition and "All-American" Aged Cow for 1925. Owned by C. S. Potter of Ogden, Utah.
If Cliff Potter of Ogden, Utah, had kept his Holstein cow at home, she would have been known only to the people of Utah as a very good cow. But Cliff Potter is a man of vision and he sent his Holstein, "Sara Ann Duplicate" into the hottest competition to be found in America—she came to the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in 1925. There she was made Grand Champion Holstein of the Show and later was made the wonder-cow of the breed for the year, having received the honor of the "All-American" aged cow—an honor which is outstanding in the Holstein breed.

The best livestock of the various breeds will always be found at the Pacific International and this year will be no exception. Therefore, lovers of livestock should make it a point to set aside the week of Oct. 30-Nov. 6 for their annual livestock vacation and education.
