VACINATION

When some one tells you that vaccination is a "false theory," give him one fact.

In the war of 1870 all of Prussia's soldiers were vaccinated.
There was no smallpox in the Prussian army. The French army was not vaccinated. There were thousands of smallpox cases in the French army. Germany today has no smallpox except isolated cases coming over the border from Russia.

In the late great war all the soldiers of civilized countries were vaccinated. Smallpox accounted to nothing in that war.

Church News

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

Miss Marie Nadelhoffer is here in the interest of the Near East Relief. She presented the cause to the congregation of the Christian church at Heppner last Sunday morning and to the Ione Congregational church in the evening.
During the week she is busy soliciting aid from individuals and fraternal societies. Next Sunday she will speak at Lexington and later, will go to Hardman.

Mr. Wood, the pastor-elect of the Christian churches at Ione, Lexington and Pine City is expected to arrive in time to conduct services Sunday, October 19.

The Visitation and Association meetings of the churches of the Mid-Columbia Association of Congregational churches will be held next week. The Ione meeting is to be held on the evening of the 21st.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid will hold a food sale at Moore's store this Saturday. Don't miss it.

The meeting of the Dorcas Society at the home of Mrs. L. E. Dick-in Thursday afternoon of this week was quite numerously attended. Tea was served by the society who was assisted by the Mesdames McMurray and Bullard.

SHERMAN J. LOWELL

Sherman J. Lowell of New York was sworn in as a member of the United States tariff commission under a recess appointment by President Coolidge.

Bible Thoughts for the Week

Sunday.

The Secret of Success.—This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein; for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.—Josh. 1:8.

Monday.

Be Ye Thankful.—When
thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which He hath given thee.—Deut.
8:10.

Tuesday.

All Share Alike.—As his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff.—1 Sam.
30:24.

Wednesday.

The Angel of the Covenant.—
And an Angel of the Lord came and said, I will never break my covenant with you.— Judges 2:1.

Thursday.

The Lord's Delight.—Hath
the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of the Lord?—1 Sam. 15:22.

Friday.

Acceptable Diligence.—Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the Lord, your God, and His testimonies, and His statutes.—Deut. 6:17.

Saturday.

God Our Helper.—O Lord God, and what is my house, that Thou hast brought me hitherto?—II Sam. 7:18.

THE GOLDEN RULE CHILDREN

By Mary Carolyn Davies.

A tattered, wistful child peers now In pour lighted window shine:
You turn away, "Well, anyhow,
He is not mine."

I did not make the war voice brought Such ruin on his curly head.
If nations did as nations ought No child would lack for bread.

You turn away and you forget.
Your little ones romp through the door,
They will not see, nor you and yet Forevermore.

Dead children on your step will lie.
Dead faces at your window wait.
Oh, let us help them, you and I,
Before it is too late.

Miss Carolyn Davies, well known to poetry lovers all over the country, has recently share the honor of being chosen, with Mr. A. W. Peach, of Northfield, Vermont, in the Morgenthau $500 poetry poster contest to promote Golden Rule Sun.

NOT SERIOUS

"Don't you think she's rather two-faced?"
"Yes, but it washes off every night."

Thoughtlessness

Here lies the body of Booby Hatch, Who looked in the tank with a lighted match.
Parts of Booby were never found,
But those collected are under this mound.

A Chain Shop

Grocer—You've nicked my face in a dozen places. How much do I owe you?

"Sixty cents, sir!"

"Sixty cents?"

"Cut-rate, sir—cut-rate!"—The Progressive Grocer.

Also Guilty

"Judge," announced a plaintiff, "that glue factory on the next street has got to shut down. It gets my goat!"

"Case dismissed," ruled the court.
"If you've got a goat you haven't any grounds for complaint!"—American Legion Weekly.

America's Greatest Horse Show

Miss Clementine Lewis and
"Highland Lassie"

The Horse Show programs of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland, Oregon, will begin this year on Saturday night, Oct. 30th.
They will be continued each evening of the following week starting Monday, with matinees Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The Exposition, housed in its ten-acre building, is the largest of its kind in the world and the ribbons tied there are considered equal or superior to honors achieved elsewhere.

$100,000.00 in prize money is distributed during the week, of which the Horse Show alone offers $32,500.00, the largest amount ever placed in any premium book. The Olympic Hotel of Seattle $4,000.00 stake for five-gaited horses also sets a new high mark for distribution in a single class.

No such aggregation of hunting and jumping events has ever been scheduled in the West and the entries are better than at any previous Horse Show.

In all probability there is no single institution that has been instrumental in adding so materially to the development of the Northwest as the Pacific International Livestock Exposition. Many millions of dollars in value have been added to the livestock industry by its organized effort to improve breeds and breeding methods. The expositions held in Portland present an unparalleled opportunity for judging results and gathering data for the furtherance of future developments.

All railroads are making a round trip rate of a fair and one-third for the Exposition. Visitors should not fail to ask local agents for particulars.
