

"ONE OF THESE LITTLE ONES"

The program of Near East Relief centers in the child and is the natural outgrowth of the spirit of the Golden Rule

The President Says

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 15, 1926.

Gentlemen:

I regard International Golden Rule Sunday as a movement of much importance. Begun in an attempt to care for the orphaned children of Bible lands, it has been extended to other countries.

Practical help is the best expression of friendship. The aid we may give out of our abundance to those less fortunately situated than we should be of great value in bringing about the application of the Golden Rule to the settlement of misunderstandings among nations as well as among individuals.

I hope the voluntary observance of this day may become increasingly prevalent in America and throughout the World.

Very truly yours,

International Golden Rule Committee
151 Fifth Avenue,
New York, N. Y.

Where 1000 boys eat daily.
1/35 of the total number to be fed.

Food, clothing, shelter and loving care are provided for the homeless; school and religious training for the young and inexperienced.

Skilled medical aid in case of accidents.

Every child goes to school. No illiterates among graduates.

Coming from the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

A RELIABLE ORGANIZATION, chartered by and responsible to Congress. "Easily the leader in the quality of its personnel."—Felix Warburg.

"I can endorse without reservation its wise economic administration and the devoted and ably qualified personnel."—John R. Mott.

Serves to "create a more sympathetic understanding between peoples and thus helps us to progress a step further toward world peace."—Charles E. Hughes.

$5.00 means food for one month.
$2.00 means full support for just over one week.
$100.00 means a Sponsorship for one year. Definite child assigned, photograph and story furnished.
$500.00 brings a ten year old orphan to full self-support.

Your money in the hands of Near East Relief is yourself at work for these children

EAT A SIMPLE, ORPHANAGE TYPE OF DINNER THAT DAY: for example, - a stew (they have meat but once or twice a week in the orphanages), bread, apricots and cocoa. Think of the orphans of the Near East. Realize to yourself their condition. Do for them what you would want to have done for your children if they should ever be left destitute. More detailed suggestions concerning Golden Rule Sunday available upon request.

Give! Now!
"He gives twice who gives quickly"

Making the "White House Rug" that was given President Coolidge, December, 1925.

Every orphan is taught some practical trade that will make self-support possible at sixteen.

The carpenter shop at Nazareth.

Harvesting the orphanage crop—double the local yield.

Increased production and improved methods lift the economic level.

A WORTH WHILE OBJECTIVE. Training children for self-support and future usefulness. "Its orphanage work is one of the finest pieces of constructive work I have ever seen."—Cardinal O'Connell.

"Nothing in the history of the American people so becomes them as their attitude toward these persecuted people."—S. Parkes Cadman.

To help these children I will for one year pay Near East Relief the sum indicated by my (x) mark.
