NUMBER 29

REBEKAHS CONVENTION

SIXTH ANNUAL MEET OF DIST. NO. 20.

Six Lodges Represented
President Dora Sexton
In Attendance.

The sixth annual convention of the Rebekahs of District No. 20, comprising the lodges of Morrow County, met in the Masonic Hall, at Ione, Saturday, December 11 at which time the following lodges were represented: Mistletoe, of Hardman; Sapphire, of Morgan; Holly, of Lexington; Anchor of Boardman; San Souci, of Heppner; Bunchgrass, of Ione.

The meeting was opened at two o'clock by the officers of Ione lodge. After the usual opening ceremonies they surrendered the chairs to the officers of the Convention, chairman Clara Hawk of Ione, vice chairman Alta Troedson of Morgan, secretary and treasurer, Verda Ritchie of Ione.

The regular business was carried out, during which President Dora Sexton of the Rebekahs Assembly of Oregon was introduced and welcomed.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Vic Heliker, Noble Grand of Ione Lodge. Mrs. Alta Troedson of Morgan Lodge responded in a very pleasing manner. Our President, Miss Sexton, made many kind and helpful suggestions and also many corrections during the afternoon and evening sessions, which will be a wonderful help in the future. Sister Frye gave an interesting talk on "Object of Convention." Brother Frank Griffin gave a splendid talk on "Why I am an Oddfellow." The various lodges made their reports and exemplified different phases of the ritualistic work in a very pleasing manner, which ended the afternoon session.

The banquet was served at six o'clock, after which the following program was enjoyed by all members and the many visitors. Whistling Solo Elizabeth Phelps. Acc. by Hazel Padberg. Play, "Twelve Old Maids." Ladies of Ione Lodge. Russian Dance, Gyna Galashneff.

MORGAN NEWS

Morgan and vicinity was visited by heavy snow storms Sunday and Wednesday.

The Morgan Rebekahs attend the Rebekah convention at Ione, Saturday.

Deane Engelman and Allan Gordon were calling on Miss Gladys Medlock, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hynds were calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely, Sunday afternoon.

The Morgan Rebekahs entertained the president of the Oregon Rebekah Assembly, Miss Sexton, Friday night.

Mrs. Henry Streeter and children are visiting Mrs. J. F. Hardisty before leaving for their new home at Camas, Washington.

Mr. W. F. Palmateer left for Portland Thursday. He will visit there for a time.

After the program, the visitors retired. The evening session was opened by Ione Lodge. This being a special session of the Order, after the opening ceremonies the officers their chairs to the officers of Sans Souci Lodge who put on the degree work in a beautiful and impressive manner. In fact the Heppner Rebekahs put on the best work we have had at any of our conventions.

The chairs were again surrendered to the Convention officers and the business of the convention resumed. Sister Lillian Turner gave a talk on "Harmony." The following reports were read accepted: Resolutions, Memorial, Thanks, question box and press report which was to appear in the local paper.

Heppner invited the convention to meet with them next year and the invitation was accepted.

The following are the convention officers chosen for the coming year: Chairman, Sister Olive Frye of Heppner; Vice Chairman, Sister Cora Warner of Lexington; Secretary and Treasurer, Sister Verda Ritchie of Ione.

WHEN WE TAKE A BIRD'S EYE VIEW--

Things always look different over a far perspective. If we take a bird's eye view of life everywhere, we appreciate how small our disappointments and inconveniences really are and how large is our good fortune.

To-day we of the United States are envied by the whole world. We have more automobiles, more electricity, more telephones, more household luxuries, more happiness, than all the rest of the world combined. The BANK of IONE believes that the spirit of optimism in IONE and vicinity is entirely justified. We all have reason for gratitude at this Thanksgiving Time.

TWO DESPERATE MEN

BOYS OF MERTON

My room-mate William Harrison Green, (called Willy for short) and I were out of jobs! This was very bad for two boys who were trying hard to work their way through Merton Academy. It was this way. We were both working for Miller's Grocery and it went bankrupt and left us both in the hole. There was no other place for us to get a job in Merton because that was the only store there. We had tried to sell life-insurance, bonds, hair tonic and Bradley shoes, all with no success, for it seemed everyone in Merton had more life insurance than he could carry and keep paid up or needed none of the other articles.

We decided we would try something desperate because we must have money or leave Merton Academy.

We received leave of absence for four days to go home, but in stean we went to Amboy, Indiana, and just as luck would have it we saw the bank president put a large wad of greenbacks in a small buckskin bag and start walking alone at night down a country road.

That night was so black that you could not see your hand before your face, and so I says to Willy: "Now's our chance."

Willy agreed and so we armed ourselves for the fray. I had an old Colt navy that was so rusty it would 'nt shoot and Willy had a jagger-like hunting knife.

It started to rain and Willy wanted to go back but I argued that this was all the better so we kept on.

We soon caught up with our man and we proceeded to tell him o' stick 'em up" which he did at once.

Willy said with gusto: "Hand over that buckskin bag."

The man soon gave us the bag. Then we told him to run for his life, and I waved the colt so long in his face he fairly flew down the road.
