Idleness and pride tax with a heavier hand than kings and parliaments. If we can get rid of the former, we may easily bear the latter. —Ben Franklin.

JANUARY

BY DENNIS A. MCCARTHY, LL. D.

From the "Book Builder," Ginn & Company, Boston.

January's breath benumbs
Even when her skies are bright;
Freezing from the north it comes Over hills and valleys white, January's brooks are mute, Save, where in the snow, some rill,
Tinkling like a broken lute, Makes a tiny music still—
In the silence so profound,
As it hides, and glides along,
Makes a faint and eerie sound Like the ghost of summer's song.

Bitter cold on hands and face;
January's kiss is cold,
Yet behold how young and old Revel in that cold embrace.
See, on every lake and pond, Skimming skaters whirl and dash,
Where from dizzy heights beyond Shod with speed the skiers lash,
And though brooks no longer sing,
To our ears a summer tune, January's breath can bring To our cheeks the rose of June.

*For she was just the quiet kind whose natures never vary;
As streams that keep a summer mind, snowhid in January.*

J. Russ, II Lowell

THE SUPREME TEST

The supreme test of free government is the right of the government to write and un-write its constitution and its laws.
The supreme test of good citizenship is the capacity to obey the constitution and the laws when written. To disregard our constitution, to evade it, to nullify it, is to plant the seeds of destruction in the heart of the nation. — is to confess before the world that we have neither the moral courage nor the intellectual sturdiness for self government.

SENATOR BORAH

Church News

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

At the monthly missionary meeting of the Dorcas Society, on Thursday of this week, the program was prepared by Mrs. Jones the wife of a former Ione pastor.

The topic considered was the missionary work in the Philippines.

The interesting and profitable session was made yet more enjoyable by musical selections rendered by Miriam Hale and Fern Engelman. Miss Mildred Smith played the accompaniment for Miss Engelman.

We understand that the special meetings soon to begin at the Christian church in the near future are to be under the direction of the pastor, Rev. E. L. Wood, assisted by Rev. Milton Bower of Heppner who will be the song leader.

THE SIX WEEK HONOR ROLL

It is interesting to note that the third six weeks honor roll, includes three freshmen from a class of seven. For the first time this year, a freshman heads the list. Wake up upper classmen!
The verdant freshmen, who you thought so green have fifty percent of the honor roll!
