IONE, OREGON, FRIDAY, May 20, 1927

NUMBER 51

IONE WINS FROM ARLINGTON 8 - 2

Ione Takes Second Place In League

Heppner Beats Condon 6 To 0.

Ione batters came to the assistance of their new pitcher and made 10 safe hits, five of them for two bases each, and one which should have gone as a single was stretched to third base.

Arlington made a flashing start. Ortman struck out, Blackburn went out on a grounder to Manning. Parish slipped one just inside third and Wheelhouse knocked one out of the lot for a home run. That ended the matter for Arlington as they made but two more hits, one in the 4th and one in the 7th.

Ione started with a single by Cochran, a sacrifice by Werner, a single by Drake, a two bagger by Harford and a three bagger by Manning who scored after Eubanks had gone out 5-3. Bristow made first on an error and Fasnacht struck out.

With two down in the second, Werner knocked one through short and scored on Drake's two base swat, Harford struck out.

In the 4th inning, Fasnacht made first through error by Solvester and scored on Cochran's two bagger; Werner and Drake knocking infield flies.

In the 5th inning, Harford opened with a two bagger and scored on Manning's two bagger. Eubanks and Bristow filed out to left field and Manning was out trying to steal home after two strikes had been called on Fasnacht.

In the sixth inning, Fasnacht walked, stole second and scored on Werner's hit; Lundell going out 2-3 and Drake 1-3, ending the scoring.

Earned runs: Ione 4, Arlington 2. Three base hit, Manning. Two base hits: Harford 2, Drake 1, Cochran 1, Manning 1. Home run, Wheelhouse.

Struckout by Manning 7; by Woolsey 6. Double play, Manning to Bristow to Harford.

Stolen bases, Fasnacht 3, Werner, Bristow, Woolsey, Manning. Hit by pitcher, Fasnacht.

First base on balls, Fasnacht and Woolsey.

Had Ione hit in former games as they did this time they would have won every game this season.

Farm Mortgage Foreclosures

Approximately 123,000 farms changed ownership by reason of forced sales or other default during the 12 months ended March 15, 1926, according to a report on the farm real estate situation recently issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. This was at the rate of 21 farms per thousand when adjustment was made for plantations of the South.

Radio on the Farm

There are now 1,256,126 farms in this country equipped with radio receiving sets according to the United States Department of Agriculture. The estimate is based on returns made by county agricultural agents throughout the country and shows a 126 per cent increase over the 553,008 sets estimated to be on farms in July, 1925.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS HOLD CLASS NITE

On Monday night, May 16., the Senior Class of the local High School presented a very interesting program to the public. Its purpose was to shorten the Commencement program which in former years has been so long as to be tiresome. The numbers rendered were as follows:

Welcome song	4 Senior girls
Class poem	Mary Grabill
Scene in law office in 1950	Ruth Swanson, Frank Mason, and Dave Head.
Class song	Mary Frank
Class Grouch	Clair Young
Class Optimist	Ina Morgan
Key Oration	Geo. Ritchie Jr.
Farewell song	4 Senior boys
Class yell	by whole class

The following is the class poem which was given by Mary Grabill.

CLASS POEM, I. H. S., '27.
We are the sharpest class in school;
There is no doubt of that;
Though sometimes when we're natural,
We may seem rather flat.
So thus you see our motto hangs
Suspended in the air,
The motto that has won us fame
And made the Freshmen stare.
They wonder how we've managed to
Climb to this honored place,
But, classmates, we must always strive
To win in every race.
Let us this motto not forget:
Be sharp but never flat;
Be natural; just what you are,
And friends you'll never lack.
Now let us see just who is who
In this bright class of twelve.
This class that very valiantly
For so much knowledge delved.
There, David our class President,
Who bosses all the class,
We have to do just what he says,
For Davy takes no sass.
Now George is our class Romeo,
Unlike so many boys,
A blond he calmly passes up,
A brunette is his choice,
Then Ruth, the next one that
you see,
Is noted for a grouch,
Her chief delight is to find fault,
And scatter slams about.
And Johnie with his heavy beard
You ought to hear him rave,
He wishes that they would't grow
He hates so much to shave.
Clair Young, of course you all know is,
The smartest in the class,
He swallows all the things he's taught,
Like water from a glass.

Mary Frank has fooled us all,
She acts so very staid,
We never thought she'd get a
man,
Her doom seemed an old maid.

There's Frank, who's our class
orator,
He likes to prove things true,
No doubt he'll later study law
Ane live in Reno, too.

And what about the farmer lad,
In that loud sweater there,
Oh, that is Rood, he claims to be
A fighter anywhere.

Ina is our class heavy weight
And keeping well in trim,
Preparedness is her watchword,
We all sympathize with "him."

Old Larry's our stenographer,
You asked me is he fast?
Whenever there's a test to take,
He never does come last.

We've got a man plays football,
The honorable Lowell E. Clark,
The only place he feels at home,
Is in a foot ball park,

My specialty is poetry,
Just talk about your fads,
When I get started writing lines,
The blamed stuff comes in scads.

Simplify the Dictinn.

Young man when you have to hunt through Webster's dictionary to find words big enough to convey your meaning you can make up your mind that you don't mean much. —Josh Billings
