WAR RISK INSURANCE

Urging World War Veterans of this community and state to avoid the inevitable last minute rush of war risk insurance reinstatement Keneth L. Cooper, Portland Regional Manager of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau is giving last minnte warning that July 2 of this year is the last day that government insurance will be available. He asks that those entitled to government policies, by reason of having war insurance, tak action in this matter at the earliest possible moment in order that every applicant may be taken care of.

JUNE

By Eulah E. Hannah in her newly published book of verse, "Gleanings of the Season" printed by the Stratford, Boston.

Young Summer, throwing a shawl of green,— Heirloom of royal heritage,— Draws slyly near,

Behold the leaflets, tender shoots,
Maturing in their lusty state,
Until the trees,—

A tremble with their dressy weight,— Salute the breeze.

Long blades of grass with feathery heads
In bleuding hues surge far and wide Across the plain;

All through the day the zephyr ride
The lift of ripening grain.

The humming bird, important mite,— Gets from the new blown colvmbine
A honeyed meal;

But should a bee just chance to dine
It might not feel quite weal.

From flower to flower let them flit,
While here the songsters of the trees
Carol a tune.

The flowess, birds and bumblebees Enhance the month of June.

TO "OUR SLIM"

(Written for the East Oregonian by N. Ben Riley)

Long time my muse refused to wake to anthem or to hymn
No hero could beguile my pen, I lacked a theme or vim;
And then as eagles' pinions cleave the bright cerulean skies;
"Our Slim" my tardy mind awoke—his fame bedazed mine eyes.
Here's to you, boy; from Oregon our best regards we send,
May fortune be your portion, and pleasnres never end:
And upward as the condor flies you pass each lowering cloud—Long life that we may honor 'till glory drapes your shroud.
You started where a thousand vields and gloried in your flight;
You landed in a million hearts and won a hero's right.

Old-Time Embroidery

Petit point embroidery became popular during the Fourteenth and Fifteenth centuries. It was much practiced in France, where it was known as "au petit point."

Not Always Heard

"Conscience is a still, small voice," quoted the good deacon. "Not only that, but sometimes it seems to have an impediment in its speech," suggested the unregenerate backslider.

Important Point

After a lucky day at the races four sportsmen adjourned after dinner to the flat of one of the quartet to play poker. Just before the cards were dealt the host said: "Oh, by the way, boys, before we begin, it's just as well to be clear on this point. Are we playing fair, or all we know?"— Toronto Star.

Stormy Body of Water

Euxine was the ancient name for the Black sea in southern Russia and connected with the Mediterranean sea by the Bosphorus, the sea of Marmora and the Dardanelles. Euxine, a Greek word, means inhospitable, and the sea was so-called because of its treacherous weather and sudden and severe storms.

Luzon Leads in Area

Although figures differ somewhat concerning the area of the various islands of the Philippines, it is an accepted fact that Luzon is the largest island. Mindanno ranks second. The area of Luzon is approximately 40,969 square miles, and that of Mindanno 30,202 square miles.

Chinese Catholic Bishops

On October 28, 1925, Pius XI, in the presence of his court and of the diplomatic body, consecrated six bishops six Chinese priests. They were Chao, Suow, Cheng, Chou, Hoo and Tsou. These were the first of that race to be elevated to the position of bishop.

Stores on Shipboard

Ship's stores are articles used on board ships, which, if used on land, would be liable to duty, for example, wines, tobacco, spirits, and the like.
In a wider sense the term means the entire provisioning of a ship and the goods necessary for the making of repairs.

In the Cause of Medicine

The Medical Insurance society of England has evolved a plan whereby students who have not sufficient means to buy a medical practice may now do it through a system of loans. This is considered a great aid to medicine.

Baltimore's Distinction

The first umbrella factory in this country was established in Baltimore, Md., and is still in operation. It is said that the first umbrella to reach America was taken to Baltimore and was first carried in that city.

Mustard as Emetic

Mustard and water is an easy and mild emetic. A little mustard rubbed on the hands will at once remove all smell of fish. To obtain the full flavor of mustard it should be mixed with a little salt and milk.

"Handling Nettles"

You know the advice about handling nettles:
grasp them firmly. If you tackle them gingerly you'll think you've run into the business end of several needles.

Advertise consistently and vigorously, and you will eventually realize that it pays. Advertising, like any other undertaking, wont succeed under weak and vacillating direction.

Take hold firmly

Hang on.
