FOR SALE

THE JOHN HUGHES RANCH situated on Willow creek, four miles northwest of Heppner, the County Seat of Morrow County, Oregon. Consisting of 70 acres of Alfalfa Land, 485 acres of Wheat Land, 1205 acres of Grazing Ladd. All under good fence. Both the O. & W. Railroad and the Oregon Washington Highway pass thru the ranch close to the home place. Good large barn and numerous outhouses. Water right is of record. High school at Heppner and district school three quarters of a mile from the ranch house. Address ARTHUR SMITH, Trustee, Heppner, Oregon.

New Way to Hunt Rabbits

A Franklin (N. H.) man has a unique method of catching rabbits. The night before he is ready to catch the animals he sprinkles red pepper on rocks placed just outside the rabbit holes. When the rabbits come out they sniff the pepper and sneeze violently, thus striking their heads against the rocks, which kills them.—Boston Globe.

STRAYED

One bay horse about six years old with four white feet and a bar X brand. The animal will be released to owner on payment of pasturage bill and the cost of this advertisement.

"While There's Life—"

Life in this old vale of tears and laughter, especially the former, is discouraging in some ways and we have devoted twenty-five years, hand-running, to trying to cultivate sufficient tact to convince wife's relatives in a nice way that it wouldn't be convenient to have a visit from them at the time mentioned, and look at us now.—Ohio State Journal.

IONE RED CROSS FUND

LETTER OF R. C. OFFICIAL RECEIVED

San Francisco, Cal.

June 14, 1927

Mrs. Bert Mason,
Ione, Oregon.

My dear Mrs. Mason:

This will acknowledge your letter of June 7th enclosing bank draft for $265.00, contributions to the Mississippi relief fund. We note that this amount represents proceeds from a dance given under the auspices of the American Legion and various Lodges of Ione and Morgan. We are very grateful to your community for making possible this generous sum to be applied to the relief fund. Will you please express to those responsible for the entertainment, the appreciation of the American Red Cross

As your community is within the jurisdiction of the Morrow County Chapter, we are crediting their quota with this amount and are so notifying them.

Thanking you for your own part in this great work, I am

Very sincerely yours,

R. E. Arne
Asst. Vice Chairman

MASONIC SCHOOL SHOES

"El Zapato Escolar", a Masonic organization in Cuba which distributes shoes to poor children in order to enable them to attend school, has, since it was founded in 1920, distributed more than 13,241 pairs of shoes costing over $24,000.

If you must kill time why not try working it to death?

Wasted Resolutions

To be always intending to live a new life but never to find time to set about it; this is as if a man should put off eating, and drinking, and sleeping, from one day and night to another until he is starved and destroyed.—Tillotson.
