ERADICATE TYPHOID

Typhoid fever now costs the state of Oregon about $340,000 annually. Purification of water supplies, pasteurization of milk and the use of typhoid vaccine, when generally applied will make possible the eradication of typhoid fever.

Pendleton Local Discoutined. U. P. Bus Service Begins

The Pendleton Local between Pendleton and The Dalles will be discontinued on July 23. On July 1, Union Pacific Stages will begin operating on a regular schedule between Pendleton and Portland, as follows:

	a. m.	p. m.
Lv. Portland	6:50 and 1:00
Arr. Pendleton	4:30	10:40
Lv. Pendleton	7:05	12:20
Arr. Portland	4:45	10:00

All stages stop for lunch at The Dalles with rest stops at Umatilla, Arlington, The Dalles, Hood River and Multnomah Falls.

Fares practically the same as rail fares.

Stages leave Arlington for Portland at 10:10 a. m. and 3:25 p. m., arriving in Portland approximately 7 hours later.

Stages are of the latest type, comfortable and convenient.

Makin the Swimming Pool Safe

Swimming pool sanitation has assumed importance with the recognition of the danger of swimming in polluted water and with the ever-increasing number of swimming pools in this state. According to a conservative estimate, there are upward of 200 swimming pools in the state of Oregon.

Swimming pools are nothing more nor less than common bathtubs. Although the swimming pool was designed to improve hygienic conditions, it may become a hygienic menace. Swimming pools are seriously contaminated from the bodies of users, even when the greatest care is taken to insure that bathers are free from diseases and cleansing baths are taken before entrance into pools. Epidemics of acute colds among users of swimming pools are not uncommon and this infection is due to bathing in contaminated water. Eye, ear, nose and throat infections frequently occur, and intestinal infections are transmissible through swimming pools.

Church News

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

At a meeting of Synod of the "Free" Presbyterian Church of Scotland held recently at Inverness, Scotland, it was agreed that anyone who wished to become a member of that church must, first of all, sever his connection with Free Masonry.

Pastor Head of Ione visited the Congregational Bible School at Lexington, Sunday, returning to Ione in the evening in company with the Rev. E. L. Wood of the Christian church.

Preaching service at the Christian church, Sunday evening, as usual preceded by the Christian Endeavor meeting.

Sunday, July 10, is the date of the regular Communion service at the Congregational church.

THE DECLARATION

We hold these truths to be self evident: that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundations on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; but when a long train of usurpations and abuses evinces design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their duty to throw off such government.

ROMANCE that satisfies.
A love story that thrills.
With mystery and humor for good measure. As old-fashioned in flavor as home-grown strawberries on biscuit-dough shortcake. As modern as a long, sleek speedster with balloon tires and a bob-haired driver.

Read this charming tale by the author of "Classmates" and "Looking After Sandy" as a serial in
