Barber Shop Circus

Tony Sarg has invented a barber shop for children who fear the shears and clippers. He calls it a circus barber shop and has installed several in various large cities. The shop is built like a circus tent. Instead of chairs, there are life-sized iions, tigers, bears, etc., for the kids to sit upon. Directly in front of them is a marionette show which runs for six minutes. In the waiting room are peep-shows, depicting fairy tales. He should next turn his attention to den-
