FLY SPRAY

Fly time is here and the following formula for fly spray may be of value. This spray is being used on the State College herd at Corvallis and is proving very effective and does not gum the hair of the cows. It is made as follows:
1 gallon Kresol dip,
3 gallons light kerosene,
1 gallon gasoline,
1 pound Carbon Bisulphide,
3 ounces horse mint or any other similar compound.

A "Harris" Combine Will Work Just Fine.

Fashion and Good Breeding

A circle of men perfectly well bred would be a company of sensible persons in which every man's native manners and character appeared. If the fashionist have not this quality he is nothing. We are such lovers of self-reliance that we excuse in a man many sins if he will show us a complete satisfaction in his position, which asks no leave to be of mine or any man's good opinion.—Lincoln.

SOUTH AMERICAN ALFALFA SEED NOT ADAPTED TO CONDITIONS IN MORROW COUNTY.

In order to protect alfalfa growers in the United States against imported alfalfa seed grown in South America which is determined by the Secretary of Agriculture to be unadapted for use in the New England, Middle Atlantic, Middle Western and Western States, the United States Department of Agriculture is causing all alfalfa seed imported from South America to be colored approximately ten per cent orange red.

Should anyone purchase seed in the future that contains approximately this amount of orange red colored seed they should not plant it as it is not adapted to our climate.

Lemon's Alkali grass does well on ground so strong with alkali that salt grass will not thrive. It is very palatable, easy to get started and produces an abundant amount of seed. It is now growing on many farms at Boardman, and should do well along Willow creek.

GRANGE PAPERS MAY MERGE

G. H. Bailey of the Oregon Grange Bulletin, and Mrs. Bailey, attended the session of the Washington State Grange at Auburn, Wash., early in June. The executive committee of Oregon Washington and Idaho state granges were present and the subject of merging the Oregon Grange Bulletin and the Washington Agricultural News [the latter the organ of the Washington State Grange] to cover the activities of the Grange for Oregon, Washington and Idaho, was thoroughly discussed but no definite decision was reached. The Idaho State Grange has no publication. The Washington Agricultural News, like the Grange Bulletin, is a semi-monthly publication, with a circulation of 13,500.

Combining the three Northwest states into one field for a weekly publication would give a combined circulation of close to 25,000, there being that many families in the organization.

The Bulletin continues to grow at the rate of about 300 additional circulation monthly due to the fact that farmers are seeing the necessity of organizing and are joining the Grange. Of the 23 states in the union in which the Thursday about eleven o'clock a m., a smut explosion blew up and burned the large separator in operation on the Bill Hadberg ranch. About thirty sacks of wheat was damaged and some minor injuries were sustained by members of the crew. One of Mr. Padberg's hands was severely burned on the back and one of the employees had a burned neck.

Mr. Padberg tried to secure a new thrasher to take the place of the one destroyed but was unable to obtain one large enough for the purpose. He will continue the harvest with Case combines, two of these machines having been ordered previous to the explosion. Mr. Padberg has 5,000 acres of wheat yet to harvest.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wagner, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ritchie in Ione, Tuesday, a ten pound girl. Mother and child doing well.

Grange is active, only the state of Washington last year made a larger growth in membership than Oregon.

There never was a product made. The truth you must confess, but what some guy could make it worse. And sell his junk for less.

Mr. John Dima was the victim of a serious accident in connection with lowering the header section of a Harris combine, on Wednesday. The balance weights had been removed preparatory to lowering the header frame to towing position behind the thrasher when Mr. Dima released the pilot wheel with the result that the frame fell carrying Mr. Dima with it. He was thrown so that he struck his head and chest on the frame of the header sustaining painful and serious injuries. Several stitches were required to close a cut in the face and it will be several days before he can be at work again.

Marshal Hamm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hamm, of Rhea Creek, had the misfortune to break his arm Wednesday when the horse he was riding shied and threw him off.
