CAP AND BELLS

AN IMPROVEMENT

"All men," said the woman who had kept a boarding house—"all men, dearie, is brutes."
Her friend nodded her gray head wisely. She had been married twice.
"Yes," she agreed. "No one knows that better than me, an' though me second ain't no saint, I'll say this for 'im—he's letter'n me first. He's in jail so much that I have practically all I earn for me own use!"

TWO OF A KIND

"I gave her as good as she sent."
"You exchanged postal cards, I presume."

Easy to Memorize

A good thing to remember
A better thing to do,
is work with the construction gang
And not the wrecking crew.

Gentle Father

The hour was late. All was hushed and dark. Suddenly the stillness was broken by a crash from upstairs.
"G-g-g-good heavens, what was that, d-d-d-darling?" exclaimed the timid young man.
"Merely father dropping a hint," replied the girl, quite unalarmed.

Same Substance

"Molly," said some one to the little daughter of the clergyman, "does your father preach the same sermon twice?"
"I think perhaps he does," returned Molly cautiously, "but he talks loud and soft in different places the second time, so it doesn't sound the same."

DUMBBELLS

She—Do you think dumbbells make one strong.
He—Well—er—I'm strong for you.

Divorce Publicity

The picture star was heard to say, in tones exceeding sad,
"The alimony that I pay
is scarcely worth the ad."

Kind Henry

"Don't you sometimes wish your wife had married some other man?" asked Smith.
"No," replied Henry Peck, "I hold no grudge against any man, but I have wished a good many times she had remained an old maid."

Conquered

Jail Visitor—And you never had any remorse for your misdeeds?
Convict—Yes, I did, lady, but I managed to live it down.

His Alibi

Judge—You are accused of stealing eggs from the grocer's store. What have you to say?
Accused—I took them in error, sir.
"In error? How do you mean?"
"I thought they were fresh, sir!"—The Progressive Grocer.

Dodging a Loan

"You and Thompson don't seem to be so friendly as you were. Does he owe you any money?"
"No; he wants to."

Girlhood Revived by

Extremes of Fashion

Dr. Jabez Jackson, president of the American Medical Association, said recently that any woman who could yet wouldn't improve her appearance with cosmetics ought to be spanked.

Doctor Jackson, elaborating this novel point of view, said at a luncheon in Kansas City:

"When a woman goes in for cosmetics and beauty culture her health improves. Take the daring new fashions. They stimulate the circulation. Did you know it?"

"A grande dame, got up in the latest and most daring thing from Paris, stopped at her doctor's table at the Elitz the other day and laughed and said:

"Doctor, I adore these new fashions. They make me feel so girlish. Every time a man looks at me I blush."—Detroit Free Press.

Levity Resented

A man who had bought a very valuable building site was surveying his newly acquired property in a mood of reverie when a stranger, in a similar mood, accosted him.

"Sir," said the man, "I remember when this property was a farm. Why, I buried a dog here in those days. And now I read that it has been sold for half a million."

"Yes," said the new owner, with a smile, "I bought it."

The stranger was obviously hurt.

"But what I'm telling you," he said, "is the truth."

Oil for Human Machine

This was overheard in a little drug store in Newcastle recently. A little girl about five years old entered and timidly asked to buy a "bottle of oil." The clerk, wishing to be specific, asked: "What kind of oil do you want, oil that you put in sewing machines?" The little girl replied: "No sir, the kind you put in babies." The clerk wrapped up a small bottle of castor oil.—Indianapolis News.

Statesman Had Vision

The Roman emperor Justinian attempted to introduce silk manufacture into Greece in the Sixth century A. D.
