Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

An outstanding feature of the religious activities of this section this week is the Convention of Christian Endeavor Union No. 17 which convenes at Heppner, Friday evening for a session extending through to Sunday night.

The special services recently conducted at Pine City under the leadership of Evangelist James A. Painter resulted in the accession to the church of five members and a quickening of the spiritual life of the church. Brother Painter has gone to Caldwell, Idaho where he has been called to the conduct of revival services.

A survey of the helping hand which is being extended to women around the world by 239,000 Congregational women of the mid-west was given at a conference held in First church, Evanston, Ills., Nov. 1, 2 and 3.

This will be the first annual conference of the Congregational women of the mid west.

The conference will be composed of delegates from 2,590 churches in 19 states.

The missionary funds raised by the Congregational women of the mid-west last year amounted to $389,481.
