IONE HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCES PLAY

COMEDY WILL BE DECEMBER 9

Friday evening, December the ninth at eight o'clock, the Ione High School will present a three act comedy entitled "Hold that Line, Jimmy."

Jimmy, a popular but bashful college president, was to be ousted from the presidency. Both Shirley Allen and a fighting football yell inspire him to the fighting point. Come to see if he succeeds in holding the position and winning the lady!

The cast of characters is as follows: Jimmy Graham, the bashful, un-aggressive president of Crayton College. — Richard Lundell, Jerry Travis, his aggressive and most intimate friend. — Bob Grabbil.

Speed Connors, captain of the football team. — Harold Kincaid, Jasper Allen, president of the school board. — Ralph Mason.

Shirley Allen, a beautiful niece of Jasper Allen. — Arleta Farrans, Margie Winston, the most energetic girl in the college. — Fern Engelman.

Flossie Somers, the laziest girl in the college. — Mildred Smith, Arabella Washington, cook for the college. — Louise Miller.

High School Play

A play entitled "Hold that Line, Jimmy" will be given by the High School early in December. Don't miss it.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist will conduct a sale of food and fancy work, on the 10th of Dec., at Bristow Johnson's Store.

George Ritchie, who is a freshman at O. A. C. this year, spent the school holidays with his parents in Ione.

JOKES

"Mason, asked the professor in the freshman class, 'what three words are most used among High School Students?' 'I don't know', said Dorr. 'Correct' replied the professor.

Wertz, Geometry instructor: "Give me a short definition of a polygon." Louise M.: A polygon is a dead parrot."

Do you agree?

Girls' faults are few.

Boys have only two.

Everything they say.

And everything they do.

Kenneth Smouse: "How many subjects are you carrying?"

Dan Head: "I'm carrying one and dragging three."

Miss Vinson, English teacher:

"Bob, how many times have you whispered today?"

Bob: "Once." Miss Vinson:

"Gene, what should he have said?" Gene: "Twice."
