So Felix Had to Take a Trip

Just a Little Smile

REVIVED

An Arkansas father whose son was doing badly in college tried calling him over the long-distance about his grades.

"Hello, John. Why don't you make better grades?" he asked.

"Can't hear you, father."

"I say, can't you make better grades?"

"Can't hear you, father."

"I say, John, do you need any money?"

"Yes, Dad, send me $50."

Question Revised

A plain spoken clubman said to a fellow member, "How many fools do you suppose are in this club, besides yourself?"

"Besides myself," replied the other, half inclined to be angry. "I must say I like that."

"Well, then, how many do you reckon including yourself?"

WEARING THE ERMINE

Mrs. Rabbit—Mrs. Ermine scarcely speaks to folks these days. Seems quite stuck up.

Mrs. Fox—She's wearing her new fur coat.

Satisfied With Matters

Editor (engaging young reporter)—I might mention that we are a very old-established, conservative newspaper, and have upheld constitutional matters for over a hundred years.

Young Hopeful (most anxious to please)—That'll be all right, sir. There won't be any need to change them, as far as I'm concerned.—Humorist.

Inheritance

Said the fatter, after she had introduced her new boy friend to her parents: "What side of the family do you think I take after?"

"Well, you have your father's eyes, nose and mouth," the B. F. replied, "but you get your legs from your mother."—Country Gentleman.

No Progress

Editor (reading MS.)—You say here, "seems to advance, but really is as unprogressive as a clock." I don't understand that.

The Author—Well, you see, a clock is running all day and yet it always winds up at the same place.

AN EVERLASTING EXPENSE

Pretty Wife—A thing of beauty is a joy forever.

Hubby—Yes—and an everlasting expense!

This Means You

Mae—Laura has been telling the awfulest thing about you.

June—What did that cat say?

Mae—She said that there was a certain girl in this town that was silly, ugly and stuck up!

We All Know 'Em

"Foot and mouth disease has now spread to golfers."

"To golfers?"

"Yes, they foot it all day and mouth about it all night."

Matchless

Shopper—I'd like to match this piece of ribbon, please.

Clerk—Unfortunately, we cannot, madam. It happens to be one of the 'matchless bargains' we offered last week.

Still Saying It

Husband—If you know, my dear, I think I played better golf ten years ago.

Wife—Yes, Henry, I remember hearing you say so at the time.

New Way to Learn Music

Red and white lights flashing along the keyboard instead of notes on a printed page teach pupils to play the piano by the latest method. The keyboard has miniature electric lamps behind its keys, all controlled by the teacher's piano. When he strikes a chord, corresponding lamps light up on the pupil's keyboard.

The method is said to be much speedier than the usual laborious way of learning the notes.

Ring Was in Safe Spot

At Elmdale, Kan., a brand-new bride created a furor when she lost a $300 diamond engagement ring. The entire town turned out to try to find it and after everyone had missed dinner the bride happened to remember she had hid the diamond in her stocking.—Indianapolis News.

6822 Deaths from Whooping Cough

Whooping cough is the most neglected of children's diseases, and one of the most dangerous. There are 6822 deaths reported in a single year in the United States from this disease. There is no cure for whooping cough, it usually runs its course, but relief can be given and its duration shortened. A few drops of Dr. Drake's Giessco will relieve the most violent paroxysms of coughing, and given regularly it will lessen the severity of the attacks and bring quicker recovery. Endorsed by physicians and sold by druggists on guarantee of complete satisfaction. 50c by all dealers everywhere.

Finding His Sphere

"Why did you send your son into the air service?"

"Because he is no earthly good."

The part of life which we really like is short.—Seneca.
