HELEN SIMPSON

First Pullman Car

In 1850 George Pullman rebuilt an Alton day coach, No. 9. But the first all-Pullman-built car was called the Pioneer and it was first used to bear the widow and children of President Lincoln to his last resting place in Illinois in 1865.

Why, Indeed

A boy of eight was dining with his father at a hotel where the manners of the guests were not remarkable for their elegance. Soon after they had seated themselves at the table, the youngster piped up with, "Daddy, why do all the men say 'whoop' to their soup?"

Writes to Beethoven

A letter addressed to the composer Beethoven was received in Vienna the other day from a woman in the provinces. She wrote she had recently heard some of his music and was anxious to place her daughter under his tuition. The postal authorities delivered the letter at the house in which Beethoven lived and where he died 92 years ago. The courier said no such man resided there, so the postman sent it to the dead letter office.

Washington's Politics

Washington was a Federalist, and a strong party man at that, but he was unanimously elected to the Presidency by the Federalists and Democrats. He was also the unanimous choice when running for re-election. John Adams was vice president under Washington and succeeded him in the Presidency. There was a contest, however, in 1796 between Adams, Federalist, and Jefferson, Democrat, in which the former was the winner.

Impressive Potentates

In no country in the world will one find more garish display in the way of dress than in India. Both men and women of the highest rank present the most gorgeous appearance when they are "all dolled up." Magnificent jewels are worn and no royal ruler in other lands can show more magnificent pearls than are worn by some of the potentates of India. The high and mighty of the land present a fearful and wonderful appearance on state occasions, and it is worth going far to be present on an occasion of this kind.

Virgil Morgan who has been visiting relatives in Ione has returned to his home in Walla Walla.

Ed Holmquist arrived in town Sunday morning from the Dalles where has been living since last harvest.

LAST LYCEUM NUMBER

HELEN SIMPSON TO BE HERE JAN 17

Miss Helen Simpson, who will render the last number in the Ione Highschool Lyceum Course, brings to her audiences scenes from famous plays as played by famous actresses. She is a young from Boston, an impersonator who has had the good fortune to hear and study the plays of many Broadway stars, and she has built a most unique program of costumed impersonations of these well-known actresses in their own favorite plays.

These sketches have been constructed to form very complete monologs so that a very comprehensive idea of the play itself is given by the cutting.

Miss Simpson also sings, playing her own accompaniments, giving select ones from light operas and musical comedy. Among the actresses impersonated by Miss Simpson in her dramatic recital here might be mentioned the following: Loretta Taylor in her recent success, "Happiness", by J. Hartly Manners; Ethel Barrymore in her interpretation of "The Twelve Pound Look", by J. M. Barrie; Mrs. Patrick Campbell in the delightful comedy, "Pygmalion", by Bernard Shaw; Julia Arthur, as she appeared in her recent tour of the country as "The Maid of Orleans" in "Saint Joan", by Bernard Shaw; Jane Cowl in her wonderful in her wonderful interpretation of "Romeo and Juliet" by William Shakespeare; Rose Stahl in "The Chorus Lady" by James Forbes; Maude Adams in her tremendous success, "Ode to a Thumb", by Fenn and Pryse; Sarah Applegate Slissey in "Golden Days" by Sidney Toler and Marion Short.

Miss Simpson will appear here on the evening of January 17 at the Ione High School Auditorium.

Few Worth Preserving

One picture in ten thousand, perhaps, ought to live in the applause of mankind, from generation to generation, until the colors fade and blacken out of sight or the canvas rot entirely away.—Hawthorne.

Real Patriotism

Most citizens claim to be patriots, and probably are. But the brand of patriotism this country most needs at this time is that for which no claim is made. Is yours of that brand?—Grit.

Birds and Colors

A peacock is unable to distinguish one color from another. It is said that birds which fly by day see everything a bright reddish orange. Night birds see blue and violet.

Mother's Expressive Eyes

Ella started to lift the baby from its crib, but caught her mother's eye, and desisted. Afterward, she was overheard telling her playmate that she knew when her mother didn't want her to do anything. "She doesn't want me to do anything," Ella added; "she just thinks stop, and I can see her think."

Monster Sharks

Inhabiting the deep are two gigantic sharks, either one of which may reach a length of 40 feet. The basking shark is found in northern seas, occasionally straying southward to our coasts, and the whale shark seems to have its principal habitat in the Indian ocean, though stragglers have turned up as far away as the shores of Florida. One such monster is on exhibition at Miami and will repay a visit to anyone who chances to be in that vicinity.

Sadly Incomplete

A deed dated March 15, 1807, recently recorded on Long Island, conveys "the Valentine farm on the highway leading from Jamaica to Great Plains on the Jericho road turnpike, thence to the highway leading from Little Plains to Rocky Hill, including the buildings, orchards, gardens, meadows, commons, seedlings, trees, woods, paths, water and water courses," but gives no other description of the property or any indication of its size, and nobody knows what it is.

Sophistication

Bernice had some of her little friends in for luncheon the other day, and among other things she had olives. She offered them to Edna, who said she did not like them, whereupon Bernice replied in a superior fashion: "Oh, I didn't like 'em myself at first, but you must accumulate a taste for them."

Works Both Ways

Any time a friend or neighbor outstrips us in making money we can assume a moral superiority, say "money is not the most important thing in the world," and hint that he is losing his soul through worship of the dollar. If we happen to succeed better than he, we can let him have the same consoling thought.—Pathfinder Magazine.
