Origin of Word Canada

The word Canada is derived from the Huron-Iroquois Indian word "Kanata," meaning a collection of huts. In Jacques Cartier's time the territory on the north side of the St. Lawrence river, from Hochelaga, now a suburb of Montreal, to the gulf, was apparently divided into three districts—Hochelaga, Canada and Saguenay. It is here for the first time we meet the name now borne by the dominion.

Heavy Economic Loss

The annual economic loss to the United States as a result of premature deaths is estimated at six billion dollars.

UNSPOKEN WORDS

The kindly words that rise within the heart,
And thrill it with their sympathetic tone,
But die ere spoken fail to play their part,
And claim a merit that is not their own.
The kindly word unspoken is a sin—
A sin that wraps itself in purest guise,
And tells the heart that, doubting, looks within,
That not in speech but thought the virtue lies.
Then hide it not, the music of the soul,
Dear sympathy expressed with kindly voice,
But let it like a shining river roll
To deserts dry—to hearts that would rejoice.
Ah, let the symphony of kindly words
Sound for the poor, the friendless and the weak,
And He will bless you! He who struck the Chords
Will strike another when you turn to seek.

Author unknown

Kind words can never die;
Cherished and blest,
God knows how deep they lie,
Hid in the breast.

Diners Entertained

Radio headphones attached at each table in a Vienna restaurant are said to have built mealtime business for the owner of the place.

Too Much Court

"What I would like in the way of a wife would be an old maid with a big fortune." "You couldn't get such a wife. No woman with a big fortune has half a chance to be an old maid."

Clubs Enough

"I want to get something for my husband. He's a golf player." "Why not get him a new club?" suggested the clerk. "Dear me, no. He belongs to three clubs already."—Detroit Free Press.

In Praise of Winter

Take Winter as you find him, and he turns out to be a thoroughly honest fellow with no nonsense in him, and tolerating none in you, which is a great comfort in the long run.—Lowell.

Good Subject for Worry

Folks who have nothing else to worry about might consider the statement of scientists that the sun will get cold in 12,000,000 years.—Des Moines (Iowa) Register.

How to Preserve Blooms

It is said that a bloom may be preserved in its natural color by burying it in a box of clean, dry sand, where it must be left for ten days. After this treatment the flower is a thing of permanence.

Must Make Time

How can the laboring man find time for self-culture? All earnest purpose finds time or makes time; it seizes on spare moments and turns fragments to golden account.—William Ellery Channing.

Uncle Eben

"Save yeh money," said Uncle Eben; "an' be keeful what you do wif it after you save it."—Washington Star.

Record for Potatoes

The Department of Agriculture says that the weight of the largest potato recorded in their office is between seven and eight pounds. There may have been larger ones produced, but the department has no record of them.

Phonograph-Alarm Clock

The daily torture of the titter's aural nerve by a strident alarm clock can be avoided in several ways. He may sleep all morning or he may buy a gentle waker now on the market. This new alarm clock rings no bell at the rising hour; instead, it starts a phonograph! Think of the delight of being awakened by the strains of "I Don't Care If You Never Come Back," or "Everybody Wants the Key to My Cellar."—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Possible Platinum Beds

Possible sources of supply of platinum are the river gravels in southwest-Borneo, where further prospecting is required, and various districts in north Ontario, and the stream placers in Alaska, which are being investigated by the United States geological survey.

Truth's Slow Progress

Truth is said to be eternal; it is well it should be, for error so far outrides its stately steps that we might therein fear whether truth would finally overtake it.—Jefferson Davis.

Picts and Scots

In his Dictionary of Phrases and Falacies, the learned Rev. Dr. E. Cobham Brewer writes upon Picts and Scots: "Pict is not the Latin picti (painted people). As Picts and Scots are always mentioned together, there is no reason why one name should be Latin and the other Gaelic. Scot is the Gaelic's god (a dweller in woods and forests), and Pict is the Gaelic-plist-ist (freebooter), the two being equivalent to foresters and freebooters."

Early Missionaries

One hundred years ago two men were sent from Torrington, Conn., to be the first missionaries to the Hawaiian Islands, then known as the Sandwich Islands. The event was commemorated at Torrington.

Chinese New Year

On the occasion of the new year the Chinese exchange the greeting "Kung Hai Fat Tsay," meaning "Con-gratulations; may you collect wealth." The word "tsing," meaning "hail," is repeated by them numerous times during the celebration of the new year all secret societies and guilds whose rivalry is often very bitter, declare a "Truce of the Gods," when no man may attack his brother. This is generally respected by both the hunter and the hunted, who are glad of a relief.
