Don't Forget Those Dues
Golf is what letter-carrying, ditch-digging, and carpet-beating would be if those three tasks had to be performed on the same hot afternoon in short pants and colored socks by gentry-looking gentlemen who required a different implement for every mood.—New York Sun.

Hen Lays Twin Eggs
A hen in Clister lays two eggs at a time, sometimes three. The owner explains this by saying that the hen, a first year's pullet, had sunstroke when a month old. Since it has grown up the hen has on four days a week laid two eggs at a time, and has twice laid three.

Friendship

I wonder when we chance to meet again
Far down the ponderous, winding path of time,
Will our primeval friendship still remain
A gold writ poem, untarnished and sublime?
Or will the rhythmic depths of peace now ours
Dissolve in Separation's cosmic fire;
Will Absence through its strange, seductive power,
Clothe Loyalty in fatal, false attire?

It cannot be . . . Our friendship lyric song
Shall glorify the years with melody,
And arm in arm we'll march (our hearts made strong
In comradeship) like rivers to the sea!

By George S. Whitaker
Los Angeles, Cal.

Friendship! Mysterious cement of the soul!
Sweetener of life and solder of society!

—Robert Blair

Unkind Remark

It is a notorious fact that when a lawyer makes his own will he generally balls it up. This is because he has acquired such a habit of getting all there is out of others that he forgets he is working for himself.—Collier's.
