Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

At the Christian Church.

The Pointer Evangelistic Company will begin a meeting at the Christian church next Sunday, January 29. Mr. and Mrs. Pointer are Morrow County people, having resided at Lexington previous to entering the work of the ministry.

Mr. Pointer made his preparation for the ministry at the Eugene Bible University. Since that time he has served as a college instructor, pastor and is now in the evangelistic work.

His messages are based on great Bible themes and he presents them with earnestness and power. The people of Ione and vicinity are most heartily invited to hear this great gospel preacher. Remember, next Sunday, January 29th. Hear the first message and you will want to hear the mail.

Horses' Origin Unknown

Dubose Hayward says "marattackies" are the "poor horse trash" of the Carolina coast country's swamp and sea islands. "Early tradition says these horses were found by the English when they first came and that they are the descendants of runaway-rom the Spanish settlements to the south about St. Augustine, or horses turned loose by De Soto upon his ill-ated march to the Mississippi."

States East and West

There are more states east of the Mississippi river than there are on the western side. Twenty-six states are on the eastern side and twenty are on the western side not including Minnesota and Louisiana, through which the river flows.

Cause of Clock's Stopping
When a grandfather clock in a Chicago hotel refused to run, the owner was perplexed. For it was in perfect order, says Popular Mechanic Magazine. A clockmaker explained the apparent mystery. The pendulum stands in an isolated spot, where it receives the full force of the wind-and sways slightly, especially in the upper stories. When this movement is in the right direction with reference to the swing of the pendulum the clock stops, the craftsman explained.

WAY UP ON THE OLD JOHN DAY

You've been up on the John Day River,
Way up on the old John Day?
Where the rimrock hills reach down to you,
Soft Gray, russet and lupined blue,
Where the cloud-flecked shadows loiter o'er
And the sunlight dapples through;
With the white rook, the red rock,
And there a jagged cliff of green Beside a cone of amber stone with the river in between Where the blue water, the white water
And the live water weaves away Throug that wild, God painted country
Way up on the old John Day.
To the left is Greenhorn mountain, Near by there is Dixie, too,
Between is the broad Fox valley
With a green thread winding through,
To the the sweet pines to the soft pines
To the Chinese castled fir.

are afraid that this is rather too early for the title of a popular song.

A Real Triumph

One of the major victories man can achieve is the triumph over trivialities.
We feel little, totally insignificant incidents loom so large that they destroy our peace of mind. Such a habit denotes a very limited capacity for thinking and a small soul.
