Rev. E. L. Wood returned Thursday morning from Wasco, where he was in attendance on the annual rally of the Churches of Christ in Sherman County. He was accompanied at the rally by Rev. C. L. Swanber, State Missionary and Rev. O. P. Jones, pastor of the Montavilla Church of Christ, Portland.

Tuesday afternoon and evening of this week the annual Rally of the Christian churches of Morrow County was held with the church at Lexington. The attendance was large and enthusiasm ran high.

The annual business meeting of the Congregational Church of Ione was held at the church on the evening of the 15th inst. Reports of departments and officers were received. These showed all bills paid and cash balances on hand.

Officers were elected, the present incumbents, for the most part, being retained. The only changes in the official list are: S. S. Supt., Mrs. Ed Keller, member of the Board of Deacons, W. E. Bullard, member of the Board of Trustees, Fred Mankin.

Pastor Wood announces that on Sunday evening, Feb. 25th he will begin a series of sermons on "The Highway to Heaven."

The regular monthly missionary meeting of the Congregational Church will be held Thursday afternoon, March 1st, in the church parlors. Mrs. Verda Ritchie will be the leader and the topic is "Christian Schools in Foreign Lands. Everyone is invited.

Seven Ages of Woman

Women also have their seven ages. When they won't marry anyone, when they won't marry anyone except a rich man, when they won't marry a rich man unless they can have a career, when they may marry some day when they'll marry anyone, when they actually do marry and when they say they wouldn't have married except for his looking.—Fort Wayne News-Sentinel.

The Height of Goodness

To love the public, to study universal good and to promote the interests of the whole world, as far as lies within our power, is the height of goodness and makes that tempo which we call divine.—Lord Shaftsbury.

FAITH

What more has life than faith to offer?

The evidence unseen of all the heart would gain;
Assurance of the goal set for each tomorrow;
The will to strive when efforts seem in vain.

The ray that gleams through dark clouds, hovering;
Hope of a brighter, future dawn;
Kindler of warmth in heart near frozen;
The torch by which the soul is led on.

The power to pick up fragments fallen—
Wreckage of all that life held dear—
And though the heart be fearfully torn asunder,
Greet the mighty builder, near!

The soul of youth! Source of ambition!
Surmounter of mountains rugged and steep;
Gleaner of fields all filled with brambles;
Bridger of canyons, treacherous, deep;

Nucleus of endeavor; the spirit of adventure;
The trust in God and self and man;
The voice which calls during the hour of doubting;
"Onward! . . . and try! . . . and will! . . . you can!

AMERICAN FOREST WEEK

George W. Peavy, dean of the school of forestry, Corvallis, Oregon, has been selected as Oregon State Chairman for American Forest Week by Colonel Theo. Roosevelt, national chairman, according to word received by the United States Forest Service, Portland, Oregon.

American Forest Week has been set for April 22 to 28 this year and it is said that plans are already underway for its observance. President Coolidge will probably proclaim the Week as is his custom.

This is the ninth year of the Week's observance in Oregon and Washington, where it originated in 1920. The celebration this year will be largely centered in the schools, the main feature being prize essay contests for the high schools of the States, according to John D. Gutarie, of the U. S. Forest Service, who is secretary of the Oregon State Committee.

You will miss something good if you do not take advantage of the musical at Ballard's Pharmacy, Tuesday evening, Feb. 28. Ordinarily a concert of this kind is only to be heard in a large city.

Calories

In physics, the calorie is any of several thermal units, but the word is used most commonly now in dietetics as meaning a unit to indicate heat or energy-producing value of food; at so the amount of food required to produce it.

More Cold Water Needed

Many people complain because of cold water poured on their ankles from a car. As a matter of fact, most enthusiasm deserves cold water.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.
