Quotations' Great Value

The wisdom of the wise and the experience of ages may be preserved by quotations.—Diarrell.

Friendship

This communicating of a man's self to his friend marks two contrary effects; for it redoubteth joys and cutteth griefs in halves. For there is no man that imparteth his joys to his friend but he joyeth the more; and no man that imparteth his griefs to his friend but he grieveth the less.—Bacon.

Miss Opal Pettyjohn is working for Mrs. Ellis Minor.

Mrs. Medlock's father and mother are visiting her now.
