New Firm Invades Local Wheat Market

Cole Smith, Manager of the Farmers' Elevator Will Buy Grain for C. J. Sanford and Son.

Cole Smith who has been local representative of Strauss & Co. will this year buy grain for C. J. Sanford and Son.

Mr. Sanford was at one time manager of the Northern Grain and Warehouse Co., a concern which in other years bought a large amount of wheat in this territory. Producers will be glad to learn of his re-entry of the local market.

Mr. Sanford plans to visit this section some time in the near future and make a personal survey of conditions in this producing territory.

For combine repairs see P. G. Balsiger, Holt, Harris, Advance Rumely.

STATE C. E. CONV.

The State Christian Endeavor convention which begins Thursday evening, April 19, in The Dalles, promises to be one of the most successful ones ever held. Three hundred and twenty-five advance registrations from outside the city of The Dalles itself with more coming in daily indicates a good attendance.

The people of the city are making every preparation for the comfort of the delegates. Those who pay the registration fee will be given badge and program and free lodging and breakfast in homes in The Dalles. There is no limit to the number of delegates that may go from anyone place, and no special authorizing of persons as delegates if required in order that they may go. Streets will be gaily decorated with welcome banners, and the splendid city auditorium will be used for convention sessions.

Speakers for the convention include: Rev. E. W. Praetorius of Cleveland, Ohio, General Secy.

Now, no matter what the weather—
Take a Kodak

No longer can you regard a Kodak merely as a fair-weather companion. Modern Kodaks get the picture, no matter what the weather—even in driving rain! For modern Kodaks have faster lenses—lenses that admit plenty of light and allow proper exposure.

This Spring, in all your jaunts, take a modern Kodak along with the assurance that you will get every picture when it happens.

Let us show you the modern Kodaks and explain their exceptional picture-making ability.
