NUMBER 11

THOUGHTFULNESS

In this day of hurry, hustle and bustle we are becoming forgetful of many of the finer things of life that go to make world happier. It is the aim of this paper to do its part towards the welfare and happiness of the people of this community and we want to recognize and point out to our friends the kind deeds done by any of you.

Archie Cochran whom all of us knew and loved has left behind him a token of love and affection for his loved ones that should cause us to halt awhile and ponder well and one that all of us would do well to emulate.

The following letter has come to our attention and to our way of thinking is worthy of the above comment.

Ione, Ore.,
Aug. 4, 1928.

Mr. G. R. Hitt,
Rep. N. Y. Life
Insurance Co.

Dear Sir:

My son,
Archie B. Cochran, had a policy for $2000 in your company which, at the time of his accidental death by gunshot wound, was in full force and contained the double indemnity benefit.

Local Happenings

A. H. Nelson and son, Norman, motored to St. Martin, Spring last Monday morning to spend a short vacation camping and fishing.

They were accompanied on the trip by Milton Morgan who will remain a week and then return by stage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tompkins, former residents of this city and now living at King City, Idaho, are the parents of an eight pound daughter born July 31.

M. R. Morgan had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow on alfalfa this week.

Frank and Richard Lundell have a new Victor Orthophonic Portable of which Bullard's Pharmacy are the agents.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray, having finished harvesting their crop, left Ione, Tuesday for Free water for the winter.

Mrs. E. G. Sperry of Ione was a guest recently at Paradise Inn, Rainier National Park, Washington. During her stay at the famous mountain inn in Paradise Valley, 5,557 feet above sea level she found the hillsides under a fragrant multi-colored blanket of flowers that stretched for miles as far as the eye could see.

Lee Beckner's Harris combine was destroyed by fire of unknown origin at his ranch south of Ione Wednesday night, August 1. The loss was covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckner had been absent from home during the evening and discovered the fire shortly after retiring. Harvest being over the machine was standing in a vacant lot.

Mrs. Vera Moen of McMinville who has been visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Low and her aunt, Mrs. Laxton Mc Murray, has returned home. She plans to go with a friend to Medford to engage in pear picking.

Thieves entered the repair shop of J. H. Bryson, through a rear window, Saturday night, and ransacked the place. They carried off about fifty dollars worth of small tools but the indications were that they had intended to take a large amount of tools and equipment but had been frightened away before completing the haul. Frank Lundell, returning to town at 2 a. m. went to the garage to put his car up and noticing that the back door was open, closed it. The robbers had tried to get into the office of the garage but were not able to open the door.

Dr. Clyde S. Walker of Vale was in Ione, Saturday. He was returning from the Willamette valley where he had left Mrs. Walker and the children for a vacation.

Mrs. Hellen Farrens and daughters' Arieta and little Dorothy, were passengers to Portiano on Saturday. The trip was made necessary by the acute illness of Miss Arieta.

Mr. Ernest Shipley, otherwise known as "Red" is the proud possessor of a new 4 cylinder Lincoln. "Red" claims that in one night's demonstration he undoubtedly traveled 80 miles within city limits just hauling his friends around the block. To date only half his dates for promised rides are filled.

"BEAUTIFUL PIANO near Ione must sell immediately. $10 a month. A rare bargain. Write Tallman Piano Store, Salem, Oregon for particulars."

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bullard and three children left Ione by motor, Monday morning. Mr. Bullard will spend buyer's week in Portland, and Mrs. Bullard and the children will visit relatives in Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Jackson, who have been visiting Mr. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Rose Jackson, left, Monday morning, for their home in Southern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ahalt, of Duncan, spent Sunday in Ione.

Mr. Ahalt came down to take part in the Saturday night smoker, at Lexington. They returned to Duncan, Sunday night.

Sunday night, Fred McMurray was so unfortunate as to have his truck turn over and roll down an embankment, demolishing the cab but not doing much other damage. The accident was due to the lights on the car going off. Mr. McMurray escaped injury.

Mr. H. V. Smouse was in Ione on business, Monday. He reports his harvest as ended.
