ARBITRATION REFUSDD

than those received by the engineers and firemen, but the Conference Committee of Managers has even offered to leave to arbitration the remaining questions in dispute.

"In refusing to accept the really generous offer of arbitration made by the Conference Committee of Managers the representatives of the conductors and trainmen have acted in disregard of the spirit and purpose of the Watson-Parker Railway Labor act and thereby are imperiling its usefulness as a means of peaceful settlement of wage controversies between railways and their employees.
