The illusion that times that were are better than those that are, has probably pervaded all ages.
Horace Grely

THE PODIGAL SON

What a sight it will be to behold B. cher Raskob, when he finally comes to himself in the dim, dreary distance of the desert of democratic delusion, begin the weary trek back to his father's house. We wish htm an empty bottle, a stone bruins on each heel and to find the Elder Brother in full charge of the ranch when he arrives.

World Peace....

The problem of world peace is one of the most vital before this country today. It is a problem that should arouse all thinking minds, since war with all its horrors affects everyone.

Dr. Hall

This problem is ably discussed and some real solutions offered in a series of six articles recently written by
Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the University of Oregon. These articles will appear in this paper in the near future.

Dr. Hall, who is nationally known as an educator, was one of the organizers of the Social Research Council, and is an active member of the Institute of Pacific Relations.
He is also the author of a volume, "Dynamic Americanism." His views on world peace are of interest to everyone, and this paper is glad to offer these articles to our readers.
