Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations.

Mrs. Verda Ritchie is in charge of the Red Cross Roll Call for Ione and vicinity. Better step over to the Hotel Ione and secure your membership card to day. The small sum of one dollar makes you a partner in a benevolence that belts the globe. This year the Red Cross is an angel of mercy in Porto Rico and in Florida. Last year the Red Cross ministered to the hungry and homeless in the Mississippi valley. Should the necessity ever arise it stands ready to the relief of Oregon. This is not only a world wide adventure in benevolence, it is local as well. Today we go to the help of the world. Tomorrow, mayhap, the world will come to ours. Join now and bear the cross as a badge of honor.

The Ladies Aid of the Church of Christ in Ione will hold a food and fancy work sale, Dec. 22, at Swanson's store.

THE RED CROSS

The American Red Cross is one organization against which the voice of unfriendly criticism is never raised. Its merciful purposes are too well known to need discussion here. Suffice to say that high ideals of service were established by it long ago and that throughout the decades in times of peace and of war it has held steadfastly to its mission of ministering to the sick, the injured and those in distress. This reference to the world's best known agency of mercy is to draw attention to the annual roll call solicitation by which the American Red Cross expects to enroll 5,000,000 members at $1 each

THE "ZERO" HOUR

Shadows lengthen: . . . The city's lights begin to glow. A call comes through the load dispatcher's desk and the man at the generator control board knows that the "zero" hour is at hand.

Eftly, skilfully, he "floats" one generator after another—each a giant as strong as a million men—through increasing speeds until they come within 1-500 of a second of absolute synchronization with the generators carrying the day load.

Then the great switch is thrown. The strength of four million men goes "over the top" over the wires to homes, to theaters, to transportation lines—in answer to the city's call for the electricity on which modern life depends.

As you make fuller use of the plentifulities of electric service, that service is enabled to increase its usefulness not only to you, but to every department of our social and business life.
