Shop at Your Druggist's This Holiday Season

THERE'S a drug-store not far from your home. You probably know the druggist fairly well and respect him. You drop in once in a while for the purchase of some convenience or "first-aid" remedy, a fountain drink, or a cigar—and you have an occasional prescription filled there, too. That's when you appreciate its proximity most.

If you had to travel a long distance, particularly at night, to have that prescription filled, you'd probably give the matter serious thought. You'd bring the matter up, perhaps, at the board of trade, and propose offering inducements to have a prescription druggist locate in the neighborhood.

Has it occurred to you that your neighborhood druggist cannot maintain a well equipped prescription pharmacy on professional services alone? Therefore he carries a stock of household goods—many very suitable for holiday gifts. "Shop at your druggist's." You'll find it a convenience, and you will help him to maintain an efficient pharmacy, ready to serve you when you and the Doctor most need him.

For Prescriptions.—Physicians prescribe and Druggists dispense Merck's pure products. For quantities, prescription chemicals from Merck's Laboratories have the confidence of these professional men.
For Your Medicine Cabinet.—Be as discriminating as your Doctor and Druggist. Select such pure products as:
Merck's Hydrogen Peroxide
Merck's Boric Acid
Merck's Sodium Bicarbonate
Merck's Sodium Phosphate
