Bouquet With a String.

Music was prohibited during certain hours in the precincts of the college, but one undergraduate found the saxophone more engrossing than his studies. Next day he received a note from the higher authority: "Much against my better judgment, and for the purposes of discipline only, I am compelled to regard your saxophone playing as music."—Christian Register.

Best for Pulpwood.

Pulpwood for making paper can be grown in from 20 to 30 years or more, says the American Tree association of Washington. Some very profitable plantations of Norway spruce, white spruce and red spruce have been grown for pulpwood in this length of time. Spruce makes the best kind of wood for paper pulp.

Embarrassed His Mother.

Mrs. R. M. writes—"I was entertaining friends, including the minister, at Sunday dinner. The gravy bowl was nearly empty, and as I left the table to refill it, my little son exclaimed, 'Give me some more gravy, ma, before you water it.'"—Boston Transcript.

Burdens Adjusted.

I am persuaded no burden beyond human endurance is ever laid upon our shoulders, provided we use the strength that is ours to sustain it, rather than a vain and rebellious effort to rid ourselves of the inevitable.—Judge Charles Forrest Moore.

The Child's Choice.

We reckon if a kid could choose his own mother it wouldn't take him long to make the choice between one who could bake cookies and one who always knew what kind of bid to make when she had two five-card suits.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Origin of Bedlam.

"It was Bedlam incarnate" is a frequent expression to denote turmoil. The expression had its origin in the name of the Bethlem madhouse in London. Cockney English pronounced the name "Bedlam" instead of "Bethlem."

The Inveterate Fan.

"These cooking experts are always writing about thick batter," said the mere male reader of Woman's Home Companion. "Anybody knows the best batter in professional baseball is a thick batter."

Examine Thoroughly.

It is best to look at the bright side of anything, but if it happens to be something you are expected to buy turn it over and take a squint at the other side.—Los Angeles Times.

A Definition.

Americanism — Wanting somebody else to run the government because you haven't time; kicking because it is run by men who have time to spare. Los Angeles Times.

Bait.

Possibly under television the lonely wife can lure the errant spouse home evenings, by holding a banana cream pie in front of the transmitter.—Detroit News.

Quite Unimportant.

After a college graduate goes forth to conquer the world he has a hard time getting the world to pay any attention to him.—Des Moines Register.

Relative Happiness.

"We who flew kites," said Hi Ho the sage of Chinatown—"were we not happier in our modest way than these who fly airships?"—Washington Star.

Ecstasy.

"Yes, beloved!" New life came to me when first I met you—even my watch started running—after having been still for half a year.

Laugh and Be Healthy.

Laughter is a most healthful exercise; it is one of the greatest helps to digestion with which I am acquainted.—Doctor Hufeland.

Eve's Changes.

"Times have altered. The women of today are not what they used to be." True; they used to be girls.—London Answers.

Worth Remembering.

Money can't buy everything, but it can buy more comforts for the old than it can buy enjoyments for the young.

Golden Argosy.

Approximately $2,380,000,000 in cargoes sail through San Francisco's Golden gate each year.

Adrift With Humor

OF COURSE

Now that balanced and matched sets of golf clubs are in general use, we may expect dialogues like the following to occur wherever the game is played:

"Hey, Joe, what did you make it in today?"

"Shot a 96."

"Way off your game, eh?"

"No. I've got to take my clubs to the service station and have them properly tuned."

What McGrab Wanted.

McGrab was interviewing his intended father-in-law.

"I've come to ask you for your daughter's hand," he said.

"All right," said the old gentleman; "that's fixed, then."

"Do her diamond rings go with it?" asked McGrab, anxiously.

WOULD RISK IT

The chaperon has just told the girls she thought those horrid boys were telling risque jokes.

Distinguished Disturbance.

How often history will proclaim
Some one to peace averse,
Who, when affairs are bad, finds fame
By making matters worse!

Ancient History Revised.

First Patron (in barber shop)—If Delilah of Samson and Delilah fame were to come back she'd make a fortune these days, wouldn't she?

Second Patron—In what respect.

First Patron—Wasn't she the first lady barber?

Bull o' the Woods.

"Here, what's the big idea—chuckin' the bricks down as fast as I bring 'em up?"

"It's all right—the boss keeps passin' underneath."

"Oh, yes, accidents will happen, won't they?"

DON'T MISS THIS

Bo (introducing)—This young lady has just been elected to the lower house of congress.

Zo—Ah, a Miss representative, I see.

Wasted Sentiment.

"I cannot sing the old songs,"
He wailed. The loss is small.
He tries the new—and this proves true—
He cannot sing at all.

Would Do His Share.

"Look her, I shall expect you to pay your own bills," said a father who had been considerably annoyed by his son's extravagant habits.

"Certainly, dad," replied the youth. "I don't expect you to run about seeing my tailor and so on. Just leave a check on the table for me this morning and I'll see to everything myself!"—Stray Stories.

Shorter Short Story.

"Unmarried?"

"Yes, twice."

Makes Many Knots.

"Yes, this little boat makes 20 knots an hour!" said the motor-boat owner, as they plowed through the waves.

"Go on!" gasped his pretty companion. "What a lot of rope you must use! But tell me—who unties them all?"

Pa Knew.

"Pa, what is a yes-man?" asked Clarence.

"It's a husband, son, whose snappy comeback to his wife's orders is 'Yes mam,'" replied his dad.

When Food Sours

Lots of folks who think they have "indigestion" have only an acid condition which could be corrected in five or ten minutes. An effective anti-acid like Phillips Milk of Magnesia soon restores digestion to normal.

Phillips does away with all that sourness and gas right after meals. It prevents the distress so apt to occur two hours after eating. What a pleasant preparation to take! And how good it is for the system! Unlike a burning dose of soda—which is but temporary relief at best—Phillips Milk of Magnesia neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

Next time a hearty meal, or too rich a diet has brought on the least discomfort, try—

Immune.

When Bob Royer came back from a summer at the "Y" camp in Green valley, he suddenly discovered that a little vamp had picked on him, and fluttered around continuously.

"You'd better look out for that one," advised a friend. "She's got the rep of being a regular gold digger."

"Then all I've got to say is that she's a darned poor geologist," declared Bob.—Los Angeles Times.

Will Cold Worry, You This Winter?

Some men throw off a cold within a few hours of contracting it. Anyone can do it with the aid of a simple compound which comes in tablet form, and is no trouble to take or to always have about you. Don't "dope" yourself when you catch cold; use Pape's Cold Compound. Men and women everywhere rely on this amazing little tablet.—Adv.

That's Not Nice.

"I never worry about my husband paying attention to other women—he's crazy about me."

"But perhaps he has lucid intervals."—Tit-Bits.

Folks that are extravagant in everything else are often too stingy of the words in a telegram.

It May Be Urgent

When your Children Cry for It

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors' word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle, unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.
