DOCTOR FARRIOR SELLS

Dr. Fred E. Farrior, dentist, with offices in the I. O. O. F. building, this week disposed of his business and office equipment to Dr. J. H. McCrady of Seattle, who will take charge of the same on the 15th of this month. Dr. McCrady is a graduate of North Pacific Dental College at Portland and comes to Heppner, highly recommended. He is a nephew of J. I. Hanna, Hinton creek stockman, and is unmarried. Dr. Farrior expects to depart with his family from Heppner, but has not yet announced what his plans for the future are.

Local Happenings

Mr. J. R. Freeman, U. S. Postal inspector, J. R. Freeman, was lone, Thursday, making the usual routine check on post offices at Morgan, Lexington and Ione. Good Old Chinook arrived this Friday morning Feb. 15 and the icy fingers of winter have begun to relax their grasp.

Note the change in the ad of the Ione Market this week. Vic Peterson is prepared to write insurance and if you have real estate that you would like to sell it will pay you to see him.

Joe Hawk had the misfortune last Friday morning to have the water back in his kitchen range blow up in consequence of an ice plug somewhere in the circulatory system. The range and an oilstove in the room were put out of commission and some damage was done to the kitchen walls and ceiling but no one was hurt. Mr. Hawk had just gone to the cellar and Mrs. Hawk and the baby were in another part of the house.

Mr. Harbison is authority for the statement that since the middle of January we have had a total snowfall of 34 inches which is equivalent to one and three quarters inches of rainfall.

The hit and run driver who struck the Rhea Creek school bus, smashed a front wheel and crowded it off the highway some three months ago has been located by means of correspondence carried on through the office of Judge Robinson and has settled with Mr. Hale for the damage done to the bus. The driver is a salesman working out of Walla Walla for a ten and coffee house.

On Thursday evening the local lodge of Oddfellow gave the third degree to a class of five. A number of brethren were in attendance from the lodges at Morgan and Heppner.

Matter of Climate

The best shoemakers' brushes are produced by pigs that inhabit cold countries. Formerly most of them came from Russia, but now China and the United States are supplying a large part of the market.

gan and Heppner.

At the close of the degree session the Rebekahs were admitted and enjoyed a social hour and at the close refreshments were served.

The brethren announced a get together meeting at Heppner for Friday evening and urged attendance.

Backward Country

Afghanistan is a country of wild highlanders, without one foot of railroad, one mosque or temple or palace of architectural renown one handicraft of noble culture or one volume of ancient wisdom.

Missouri's Nickname

Missouri is sometimes called the Bullion state, the allusion being to Col. Thomas B. Benton, who, being an advocate of gold and silver currency in congress, was called "Old Bullion."

The Good Old Days

"They who talk of good old days," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chigtown, "think, as a rule, only of confident aspirations which were not realized." —Washington Star.

Variation in Weights

In the United States a hundred weight is 100 pounds. In England, however, a hundredweight is 112 pounds. The metric hundredweight is 119.23 pounds.

Bird Migrations

Birds travel more swiftly during the spring migration, as they have had a carefree winter, while in the fall they are tired after all the family cares of the summer.

Remove Rust Stains

To remove rust stains from silk, cotton or linen material, rub freshly boiled rice on stains, then soak the stained material in the water in which the rice has been boiled.
