

Ione Independent

VOLUME XVII

IONE, OREGON, FRIDAY, March 8, 1929

NUMBER 40

IONE SCHOOL NOTES

ROOM TRYOUTS FOR DECLAMATORY CONTESTS

Honor Roll List in Grades

The room tryouts for the declamatory contest were held this week, with the following results: In the first and second grades, Joan Sipes, Howard Buchanan, Helen Lundell and Delbert Cochran; third and fourth, humorous, Junior Mason first and Margaret Lindekin second; non-humorous, Maxine McCurdy, Cool and Stuart Rankin tied for this place and will have another try out.

In the fifth and sixth grade room the winners in the non-humorous division were Eugene Normoyle and Carl Lindekin. In the humorous there was a tie and another try-out will be necessary to decide between Francis Bryson, Mildred Lundell and Harlan McCurdy. The winners in the seventh and eighth grade room were, non humorous, Donald Heiker and Marquis Greenwalt; humorous, Claude Brehears and Walter Bristow. In this room the judges announced that there were no firsts and seconds, as the contestants were too nearly equal.

The winners in the high school contests were as follows: Oratorical, Paul Smouse. Heled Smouse, Kenneth Smouse, Rosa Fletcher; Humorous; Glenn Robison, Ellen Ritchie, Geneva Pettyjohn, Mildred Smith, Thelma Morgan; Minnie Normoyle, Francis Ely, Edith Ely.

The school try-outs will held in the gym the last of March.

HONOR ROLL

Friday marked the close of another six weeks period in the school. The honor roll for Miss Williams' room follows: Fourth grade, Junior Mason and Margaret Lindekin; Third grade, Ruth Crawford, Bertha Akers Maxine McCurdy and Eleanor Bullard.

Local Happenings

Little Josephine Case went to Heppner on Friday of last week to visit for a few days with her Grandmother Case. The little lady has been spending some time with relatives in Morrow Co, while her mother, who is Mrs. Allen Case, of Portland is regaining her strength following a major operation.

Easter Egg Dyes, Carry Egg Chickens, Rabbits and Novelties. —Bullard's Pharmacy.

Two new tractors were delivered this week, a Best "20" to Ed Lindekin and a John Deere to Swanson & Dick.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran have returned home after having spent the winter with their two daughters in Yakima.

Paul Lovell and son Howard spent last week end with friends in Ione. They came by truck and on their return took with them a plow that Mr Lovell recently purchased from Bert Mason.

Mrs. Della Mobley, who has been a patient in a Heppner hospital for several months is now convalescing at the Bryson home.

C. E. Carter of the State Highway Commission passed through Ione last week on his way from Pendleton. Mr. Carter recently returned from a visit to his old home in South Carolina. While in the south he made a trip to Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin, of the Highway Department, now have rooms in the Harris Apartments.

Mrs. Blaine Blackwell last week purchased a white Electric sewing machine. Mrs. Blackwell is under contract with the agent R. R. Burtis, to cut and make a specified number of house dresses each month, the commission she receives for the sewing to apply on the purchase price of the machine.

Mrs. Nicolai Thompson, who has been staying in town during the severe weather, returned to the ranch last Friday. During the remainder of the school year her sons will drive in to school from the ranch.

Mrs. Edgar Ball, who represents the Health-O-Products Company, has been taking orders in Ione.

Mr. Hal Ely, of Morgan, passed through Ione, last Friday, on his way home from a Heppner hospital where he has been a patient for a week, suffering from a severe attack of quinsy.

The Dorcas Society will serve a hot tamale luncheon on Thursday afternoon, March 14, at the church parlors. They will begin serving at 5 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Balsiger transacted business in Pendleton one day last week.

I. R. ROBISON

FIRESTONE

TIRES

Give More Miles

Per Dollar In

Actual Wear Than

Any Other

MACHINE SHOP

Head of Octopus

The Smithsonian Institution says that the octopus has a head. Its head sticks out as if in a cylinder and the arms make a sort of star-shaped ring around the head.

Morgan News

MRS. J. F. HARDESTY

Fred Pettyjohn of Rhea was a business visitor in Heppner last Monday. On his way home he stopped in Morgan and says that he met his brother. Faye Pettyjohn who lives on the Webb ranch Fay told him that there was still 18 inches of snow there with 2 inches of new snowfall on Sunday. To get out they had to pull his car about seven miles with horses.

Mrs. Elsie Shipley was calling Morgan last Monday.

Bert Palmsteer took his wagon and went to Ione after a load of gas last Monday.

Miss Margaret Ely is staying with her cousins Zoe and Martin Baurenfeind, while her parents are at Heppner.

Mrs. Alfred Medlock and two sons of near Heppner, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Pat Medlock.

Franklin and Alvin Ely went to Heppner last Tuesday after their mother as their father was getting along so nicely that Mrs. Ely could come home.

H. G. Hardesty finished working for Mr. Cochran at Cecil last Wednesday.

Alfred Troedson and C. C. Hutchcroft went to see Mr. H. Ely at Heppner last Monday.

Mrs. Krebs, of Cecil, stopped in Morgan, Tuesday night and took Mrs. Harbison to Ione to attend the Eastern Star.

Howard Hardesty began work for Omar Rietmann, last Thursday.

Harves Medlock was calling on George Mahoney last Thursday.

S. D. Seely plowed up a garden spot, Thursday and intends to plant potatoes.

John Nash was helping Martin Baurenfeind with some carpenter work last week.

Mrs. Ball, of near Ione, was taking orders for the Health O Products in Morgan, last Wednesday.

Mary Ellen and Vernon Ball got a ride home from school last Wednesday with their aunt, Mrs. Ball, of Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Harbison were Heppner visitors, last Thursday. While there they called on Hal Ely.

Fay Pettyjohn of near Heppner brought down several head of horses for his brother Noah, last Saturday.

Mr. Nash helped F. Ely haul feed last Saturday.

R. E. Harbison's car is being at the Robison garage in Ione, this week.

S. D. Seely worked far R. E. Harbison, last week.

PROCLAMATION

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: In conformity with establissee custom and the expressed will of the Council of the city of Ione, Saturday, March 16, is hereby designated and set apart as Clean-Up Day. All citizens are hereby urged to co operate with the city government in making this a day worthy of the name. On this day rubbish assembled in convenient receptacles at accessible points will be removed at the expense of the city treasury.

BERT MASON,
Mayor.

Clark & Linn
Carpenter Work, Painting, Paper Hanging and General Repair Work
Ione, Oregon.

Manhattan Marionettes

Coming

An unique program of very high grade will be given in the school auditorium on March 15 at 3 p. m., featuring the Manhattan Marionettes. This is the second number of the Lyceum Course that is being sponsored by local men and women who are instrumental in bringing to our community this high class entertainment.

This coming attraction brings for our enjoyment thirty beautifully costumed marionettes. "Dolls that really live". They feature short sketches from Anatole France, Charles Dickens and Shaw. The presentation of Circus Days with clowns, acrobats who swing over bars, jugglers performing almost unbelievable tricks, singers, dancers and minstrels will charm old and young alike. "Wizarco", the man who mystifys will keep you gobssing. Madame Hicoffski, soprano, and Signor Ivorino, pianist, will render some so endid numbers. You cannot afford to miss this splendid program of fun and fascination.

I. L. Patterson
The Good Governor of a Great State.

BASE BALL SEASON OPENS IN IONE

OPENING GUN FIRED IONE FANS ELECT OFFICERS AND LAY PLANS

A meeting, of those interested in base ball was held in the town hall last Tuesday evening immediately after the adjournment of the city council. The meeting was called to order by Bert Mason. Mr. John Ferris stated the purpose of the meeting to be to organize a base ball club and to take steps to join the League.

Bert Johnson was elected coach and manager over his strenuous protes and L. E. Dick was unanimously chosen for Secretary-Treasurer.

Talks were made on the subjects of seeing how much Bill Ford wanted for pitching and as to whether the club should join a league or play bush ball. Bush ball, it was decided could not be considered. On motion duly made seconded and carried it was voted to join the Morrow-Gilliam county league. Frank Lundell was appointed to find the suits for the club and George Ritchie to see about grading the grounds.

L. E. Dick was directed to confer with Heppner, Condon, and Arlington in regard to the league.

Cleo Drake was chosen as the chairman of the dance committee. It was suggested that the Grange be invited to come to Ione for their Sunday picnics and hold their ball games in the morning when the club plays here.

Are You Proud of Your Children?

If you are, you know how inadequate words are in describing them to others. And when some other father enthusiastically shows you snapshots of his children, you'll feel ashamed and handicapped in not having some of yours.

Don't—through mere thoughtlessness—fail to get these precious pictures now, before your youngsters grow up and it's too late. We have a genuine Eastman camera, the Brownie, as low as $2, and Kodaks from $5 up.

MODERN KODAKS
for all-weather picture-making

BULLARD'S PHARMACY
"The Kodak Store"

NOW IS The Time To Have Your Measure Taken for That NEW SPRING SUIT

Come in and examine our samples.

BRISTOW & JOHNSON
Ione, Oregon.

"Car Of Feed Just In"

Bady chick scratch
Rolled barley
Calf meal
Surelay
Mill Run
Shorts
Bran
Oystershell

Feed those lambs Calf Food and use less milk.

BERT MASON
IONE, OREGON