

CLEAN & PAINT UP

Continued from Pg. 1

Mrs. Willard Blake has returned to her ranch home after spending the winter in town.

Work was resumed on the Mc Nabb west road, Dist. No. 23, this week.

Everything told at the Willing Workers' food sale last Saturday and $21.25 was added to their treasury.

A party was given at the Earl Binke home, February 27, in honor of Miss Helen's 4th birthday.

Billie Joe, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann, was quite sick last week and on Friday was taken to Dr. McMurdo for treatment.

Fren Engelman and Mildred Smith went to Lexington Sunday afternoon to assist in a piano recital given by the music pupils of Mrs. E. L. Wood. Mrs. Wood and her Lexington pupils will give a similar recital in Ione at the Christian church, Sunday afternoon, March 20.

The Willing Workers meet this week with Mrs. J. W. Hawk. March 13th they will meet with Mrs. Lee Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Sperry, two daughters and Mrs. Walter Cochran motored to Portland Friday, returning Sunday.

Billy Breshers, of Hood River

MANHATTAN MARIONETTES

CIRCUS CLOWNS, acrobats who swing over bars, jugglers who perform almost unbelievable tricks; dancers, singers, old-fashioned acrobats—all these and many others will be seen here when the Manhattan Marionettes visit our city soon. There are more than thirty dolls, operated by eight hundred strings. There are songs, comic sketches, incidental music and many other delightful features. The Manhattan Marionettes are the last word in modern puppetry and the program is one of highest artistry and exquisite charm for young and old.

At Ione Highschool Auditorium, Mar. 15.
