Are You Proud of Your Children?

If you are, you know how inadequate words are in describing them to others. And when some other father enthusiastically shows you snapshots of his children, you'll feel ashamed and handicapped in not having some of yours.

Don't—through mere thoughtlessness—fail to get these precious pictures now, before your youngsters grow up and it's too late. We have a genuine Eastman camera, the Brownie, as low as $2, and Kodaks from $5 up.
