Local Happenings

Mr. Ben Juday, of Umatilla, spent Thursday of last week in Ione, visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charley Nord. When he went home he was accompanied by his two little daughters, who have been with their aunt for several weeks.

One of the plate glass windows in Bullard's Pharmacy was wrecked by a "hit-and-run" miscreant. It will cost about $35 to repair the damage. It is, however, covered by insurance.

Mrs. Ned Carr is here visiting with her mother, Mrs. Alice Wiles.

Mrs. Charley Allenger and daughter, Lillje, returned last week from Portland where Mrs. Allenger had gone to consult an eye specialist. While in the city Mrs. Allenger was quite ill, and following the advice of her Portland physician, is now staying in Heppner, in order to be near a doctor and continue her medical treatment.

Mrs. Walter Swenson and Rolan Wade, of Walla Walla, arrived last Thursday, for a visit with their sister, Mrs. E. J. Bristow. Mr. Wade returned home, Friday but Mrs. Swenson remained until Saturday when the Bristow family drove to Walla Walla.

They spent the week-end with their son, Edmond Bristow, returning Monday morning.

Mrs. Willard Farrens, who has been seriously ill, is now getting better. Her son, Rupert Farrens, and his family have returned to their home at Monument, and another son, Guy Farrens has returned to California. Her daughter has remained to assist in her care.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Agee and daughter, Emma, and Miss Thelma Ayers, of Boardman, were Saturday guests in the Mark Agee home. When they returned they were accompanied by Nedra and Beulah Agee, Miss Beulah was back home for school work, Monday, but Miss Nedra remained for a longer visit.
