Local Denominations.

The Missionary Society of the Swedish-Lutheran Church held its regular monthly meeting last Sunday afternoon at the home of Henry Peterson. Sixty were present. At the close of the program refreshments were served. Following is the program as given: Opening Song, The Morning Light Is Breaking; Bible Reading followed by Prayer, Rev. W. W. Head, Reading of the minutes. Roll Call, Vocal Solo in the Norwegian language by Arne Viken, Business Session. Sermon by the Rev. Arne Viken. Closing hymn, Tell Me Old Old Story.

Rev. and Mrs. Arne Viken and Miss Anderson of Blooming Prairie, Minnesota, and Mr. Halvor of Los Angeles, Cal., departed on their eastward journey. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Thompson. Mr. Viken held services in the Congregational church, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of last week and on Sunday evening of this week. He was with the Lexington church on Sunday morning and assisted in the missionary meeting held Sunday afternoon in the Henry Peterson home. All who attended enjoyed his sermons, his solos, and the music which he and Mr. Halvor so furnish on the musical saw the Swedish harp and the Hawaiian guitar. These people have been engaged in religious work in Portland and are now on the way to Mr. Viken's home in Minnesota.

The Darcas Society held a all day meeting in the Congregational church parlor Thursday of last week in order to finish some work that they had on hand.

Notes of Bell

A good bell, fairly struck, should give out three distinct notes—a "fundamental" note, the octave above, or "nominal," and the octave below, or "hum-note." Very few bells have any two of these notes (and hardly any all three) in unison; the "hum-note" being generally a little sharper and the "fundamental" a little flatter than their respective "nominals."
