NUMBER 4

Crop Conditions.

The alfalfa farmers are busy with their hay and are having ideal weather for the work. The hay is of a good yield and is noticeably free from weeds. There is enough water in Willow Creek to irrigate the lands for the next crop.

Mr. Louis Balsiger estimates that we will only have about a 60 per cent wheat crop this year. While there are many fields that will have a light yield there are other fields that deserve mention as being especially good. On the north side Gorger Bros. and Arthur Turner have fields that give promise of a good yield and on the south side, the fields belonging to Mike Rowell, Lee Beckner and P. Ace Brown are
