ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Richard McElligott of Portland is here looking after his farming interests in this vicinity.

Rev. John Garinger, pastor of the Christian Church, announces that there will be no preaching service in that church until after harvest.

The city park is pretty full most of the time with campers. Some are tourists but the greater number are people who are here for the harvest work.

Albert Nelson's eldest son was so unfortunate as to break his arm, Tuesday, while trying to crank the engine on their combine. The young man was taken to Dr. McMurdo for surgical attention.

Mr. James Cossman, who is a teacher in the schools of Woodland, Cal., has joined his family and is spending the summer with Mrs. Cossman's mother, Mrs. Katie Petteys.

Mrs. Zelma Kennedy has resigned her position as teacher of the first and second grades in our school and has accepted a position in the schools at Aberdeen, Wash.

At a meeting of the patrons of the Fairview school on Saturday evening, it was decided not to hold school in that district this coming winter and instead to transport both the grade children and the two high school pupils to the Ione school.

The first car load of 1929 wheat to be shipped from Ione was billed out Saturday. It was sold by J. Y. Gibson and was Turkey Red variety. Louis Balsiger bought the wheat for the Balfour Guthrie Co. and it was consigned to the Crown Mills, Portland.

Wendel Balsiger is now located at Moro, being in charge of the district office of Balfour Guthrie on that branch line.

Ted Froge, wife and daughter, were week end visitors in Oregon City. They were accompanied by Mrs. John Ferris, who visited in Portland.

Mrs. Hubert Haguewood and son have returned from an eight months stay with relatives in Wisconsin. She and her husband are now visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Haguewood on their ranch.

Mr and Mrs. Ernest Lundell and small daughters returned Sunday from a pleasant auto trip to Hot Lake, Willows, La Grande and other points.

BOUNDARY BOARD MEETS

The Boundary Board held a meeting in the County Commission office to consider petition and remonstrance in the matter of the proposed transfer of certain real property from School Dist. No. 14 to District No. 35. The case was presented for the petitioners by Ross Perry and District No. 35 was represented by Directors Ruth Mason and Margaret Blake. After reading the petition and remonstrance and letters of certain non-resident property owners, and hearing the presentation of the argument for the petitioners by Mr. Perry, the Board voted to postpone decision to August 3.

Like Mother Makes

Mrs. Black, just married, wrote home to her mother down in Dixie to send her the recipe for hot cakes. After much labor the following recipe was mailed back to the daughter: "Take as much flour as you need, adding to how many folks they is to eat; put in some salt—anybody knows how much; put in all the rest of the ingredients, an' be sure to have your griddle hot."—Exchange.
