CHANGE ELEVATOR MANAGEMENT

The Directors of the Farmers' Elevator Company of Ione held a meeting in Odd Fellows hall, last Saturday and took steps to lease the Collins warehouse at Ione and McNabb. It was voted that in case Collins acceded to the leasing proposals of the Farmers' Elevator Company, J. E. Swanson be made manager of the cobined warehouse and Elevator business of the Farmers' Elevator Co. of Ione. Mr. Swanson will continue to buy grain for Collins. The transfer of management was made August 1.

Too Much Stifle

Little four-year-old Rosemary went to a nearby movie with her parents. The picture was showing a very exciting auto race and the audience was screaming and yelling much to Rosemary's disgust. She said to her mother (with a finger pressed in each ear): "Mother, let's go home. I can't stand it. Too much stifle."

Friendship's Value

There is no man that imparteth his joys to his friend, but he joyeth the more; and no man that imparteth his griefs to his friend, but he grieveth the less.—Lord Bacon.

Personal Mention

Supt and Mrs. Earle Brown and son Winnie, arrived in Ione, early Saturday morning, to spend the week end at their home here. Mr. Brown is attending summer school at Monmouth, but they are living in Salem. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Elmo McMillan, who came for a visit with her little daughter, Beverly June, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson.

Last week, Ralph Akers took Mrs Akers to The Dalles, where she entered a hospital to receive medical treatment.

A little daughter, Joy Pauline, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ritchie, Tuesday, July 23. The babe only lived an hour and a half. She was laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery in Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sperry, Mrs. Chas. Ritchie and Arthur Ritchie, all of Heppner, were Friday evening guests in the Fred Ritchie home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dewey and daughter, Mary, departed Monday, for their home at Lucky Lake, Sask., Canada, after a pleasant four weeks visit in the Clarence Warren home in Dry Fork. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey are Mrs. Warren's grandparents.

They are traveling by auto and visited here on their way home from a trip to California.

Gordon Drapers for all kinds of Harvesting Machinery at Paul G. Balsiger's.

While working at the Farmer's Elevator, Saturday, Cole Smith fell from a truck in such a way as to dislocate his right arm at the elbow. He was taken at once to Heppner for medical attention.

Mr. Harvey Ring, who lives below Ione, was remembering his friends in town, Sunday, by the gift of some very fine roasting ears. We believe this is the first sweet corn in this locality to be ready for the market.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swanson motored to Joseph, Sunday, for a short visit with their son Carlton. They were met at the pond by Mrs. Zelma Kennedy, who made the trip with them.

Vegetables Galore

You can get most anything you need in the vegetable line and get it fresh from the earth or the vines at my place, 1/2 mile down the highway below the elevator. And I will not be undersold or half souled, but will be whole souled. Drive in under the shade trees.

W. Windsor.

MACHINE SHOP

Old Silk Reweaver
 It is reported that a process has been perfected in the Imperial Research Institute, Osaka, Japan, where by discarded silk may be put through a chemical process that changes it to a liquid form, then to a jelly, then to a plastic substance that can be made into threads for weaving.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake and two children have taken rooms in the Harris apartments.

Mrs. Allen Learned left, Saturday night for her home in Seattle after a pleasant six weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Balsiger.

A party was given in Legion Hall, Friday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundell. The time was spent in conversation and dancing. Ice cream and cake were served to the guests.

The bride received many beautiful gifts.

The Congregational Sunday School picnic last Sunday was a very enjoyable affair. Five loads of the church people motored to the pleasant camping grounds on Ditch Creek. They took with them well filled lunch baskets and plenty of ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Howk and son, Allan, and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Linn, went a gyping down the Columbia River Highway, Sunday. They had a happy picnic dinner at Hood River.

Old Puritan Law

A Sabbath day's journey, according to old Puritan law, in a case of necessity, was ten miles, that being one half of an ordinary day's journey under old custom, which placed the length of a day's journey at 20 miles.

DAVIDSON-MORGAN

At a quiet home wedding, on Wednesday evening, July 31, Miss Thelma Morgan became the bride of Mr. Thomas Davidson. The marriage was solemnized at 9:00 in the evening at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Davidson. The simple but impressive ring service of the Congregational Church was read by Rev. W. W. Head. Only the near relatives of the bride and groom were in attendance. After the ceremony refreshments were served and hearty felicitations extended to the bride and groom who are departing for Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Davidson has a responsible position in chemical engineering division of a gas corporation.

They will make the trip from Ione to Cleveland by automobile.

The Other Ten

Scientist says 90 per cent of us are mentally defective, and our hope is that the other 10 per cent will go 'way somewhere and flock by themselves. We like us as we are.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

MISS CHANDLER HONORED

A party of thirty-five Ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Henry Krebs at Ceell on last Friday afternoon for a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Myrtle Chandler. The young lady was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. At the close of the afternoon, dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served. Ladies who attended from Ione were; Mrs. Bert Mason, Mrs. J. W. Howk, Mrs. S. E. Moore, Mrs. Fred Mankin, Mrs. W. E. Bullard, Mrs. A. A. McCabe, Mrs. C. F. Feldman, Miss Hazel Feldman, Miss Katherine Feldman and Mrs. Elmer Griffith.
